J. D. Frye, one of Grants Pass' most prominent business men, spent last evening in the city attending to business matters. He left for his home this morning. Speaking of the improvements now in progress at Grants Pass, Mr. Frye said that a contract authorizing over $150,000 in bitulthic pavement was recently awarded to the Warren Construction Company, of Portland, and that actual paving operations had already commenced. He says that the city of Grants Pass is also to support a lighting system second to none in the state. The lights will be assembled in clusters and will be hung from decorative posts, the total expense of which is to be shouldered by the electric light company. The posts alone represent a cost of more than $1,000. Mr. Frye says that all electric wires are to be placed under ground, and thus relieve the streets of the present congested appearance. Mr. Frye is a member of the citizens committee that is responsible for bringing about the changes—and he is to be heartily congratulated. Mr. Frye is quite well known in Roseburg, having visited here upon several occasions when his son was employed at the Roseburg Pharmacy.
