To whom it may concern: I take unfeigned pleasure in certifying to the ability of Mrs. J. C. Stone. Her work is phenomenal. Her addresses given here were second to none we have ever heard, and among these we mean such as Mrs. Ellen Foster's; Mrs. Susan B. Anthony's and Miss Willard's, etc. We regard Mrs. Stone as vastly above ninety-nine hundredths of America's greatest speakers. I am very sincerely yours, Rev. Jas. Rea.
