OLALLA BUDGET.

Hon. and Mrs. W. R. Wells are at the county seat transacting business and incidentally visiting friends and relatives.

The Olalla school is progressing nicely under the skillful supervision of Mrs. Julius Falk.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Friend have assumed charge of the stage station and under their hospitable management, the traveling public is assured the best obtainable.

A few of the young fellows and their best girls assembled at Well's hall Saturday evening and passed several pleasant hours dancing.

A little daughter has come to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Will Ireland.

E. E. Wells is doing some very substantial road work, especially worthy of mention is the new grade at a point opposite the Ireland estate.

Contractor Norman Fisher is assisting Roy A. Giles in erecting a house and barn upon his wife's ranch.

Homer Ireland, who is in the government service, spent a week at home on the Ireland ranch.

Miss Belle Newland is principal-in-charge of the Ten Mile school and is giving splendid satisfaction to the patrons.

Mrs. Harriet Eves is at the Ireland home assisting in the care of Little Miss Ireland, a very recent, but nevertheless a most important arrival.

The fall feed upon the ranges is exceptionally good as a result of the recent heavy rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams have moved to Roseburg and assumed charge of a rooming house formerly operated by Mrs. Nebia Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prock have taken possession of the new home erected for them on the Ada Denn ranch.

Mr. J. Logan Fisher and Miss Zylpha Croucher, two very popular young people of this vicinity were quietly married at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Hampton, of Ten Mile. Only close relatives and friends to the bride and groom were present at the ceremony which united them. The groom is well known throughout the county and a native son of Olalla, while his bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mrs. William Syler, is a young lady of whom any man could feel justly proud to call his wife. Logan is to be congratulated upon having won such an estimable bride who will assist him in making a home where in peace and happiness will reign. They are at home to their many friends in the cozy home provided by the groom for his bride in Olalla. That they may live long together and enjoy years of wedded bliss is the sincere wish of a host of friends.

HERMOSA.

ELKTON NEWS

It is reported that George Dimmick has sold his farm at Kellogg and will go to Salem to make his home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Grubbe are planning to go to Portland to spend a couple of months visiting with relatives and friends.

Miss Muriel Butler was in town the first of the week.

The member of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Ed Grubbe, Friday afternoon. They expect to elect officers for the coming year at the next meeting.

Mr. Thomas, manager of the Elkton Mercantile and Development Association, has returned after a few days' absence.

F. F. Wells, of this place, is at present in Roseburg employed with his 4-horse team in the street work. Mr. Wells and family will return here later on.

A new building is in process of construction for the use of the post-office, the present quarters being much too small.

Dr. Mank has removed to some rooms over D. Weatherly's confectionery store.

The passenger travel has been unusually heavy for the last week or two.

SOUTH MAIN ITEMS.

Miss Minnie Bell leaves shortly for Elkton to spend the winter.

Roy Clark is doing some carpenter work this week for the Misses Vorhees, who occupy a part of his residence. Mr. Clark, who is interested in the high school here, has rented rooms to three high school students.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank DeRoss will move to their ranch at the foot of Mt. Nebo tomorrow. The house they vacate has already been rented to a sister of Mr. Clarence Rexroad. Mr. DeRoss reports several new houses going up near his new residence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bell, of Elkton, returned home this morning after visiting for a few days with their son, D. W. Bell.

Mrs. Dr. Russell, formerly Miss Camp, of Dixonville, writes to friends here that she likes many of the customs in Corea, where she and Dr. Russell are spending their lives as missionaries, but concludes by saying: "I can't get used to angle-worm soup and sea-weed tea."

Your Bath Room Plumbing

is a most important consideration. Upon its character the health and perhaps life of you and your family depend. If you are still without modern sanitary plumbing in your bath-room better have us change it at once. Because you have heretofore escaped serious illness doesn't prove that you will always be so fortunate.
