Coos Bay News: A party of Roseburg citizens, who lately made a trip in an auto over the Roseburg-Myrtle Point route, say that considerable work has been done on the road, especially in Coos county. The same is true in regard to the Coos Bay wagon road, the greater part of the work being done on the Coos county end. The Roseburg News ties would co-operate in carrying on thinks that if Douglas and Coos count the road building there would soon be a good road from Roseburg to the coast.—Certainly, by all means. Coos county is doing her share, to say the least, and the co-operation is up to Douglas county.
