FAMILY CROAKED ITS READERS.

Because Senator Abraham dares to speak out in the open regarding the candidacy of Judge Hamilton the "Evening Shadow," or "Pill Sheet," in its issue of last evening fairly croaked its scanty supply of readers with a scour of language directed at Senator Abraham, Hon. B. F. Jones and The News. It is the desire of the "narrow head" that no person should in any way cast the slightest reflection against the professional moor or procedure of their pet, Judge Hamilton, he having served the taxpayers already some twenty-five years and is again ready to receive a passport entitling him to six years more at the public manger. The judge has been in the harness for such a prolonged period he feels, like his puny backer, the "Evening Shadow," that any attempt to dislodge him would be a great "injustice"—not only to his own pocket-book, but the taxpayers as well—the latter having contributed liberally toward the support of the office-seeking judge during the past quarter of a century.

Regarding the "Pill Sheet's" slogan that, "The News is a notorious liar," this paper will not offer any apology. Coming from the mouth of an organ handled by a degenerate whose sole aim in life is that of insurrection and who would, at the instant call of the mighty dollar sell its soul—and the contents of its warped cranium—that the bed of the shyator organ may be feathered, The News feels as though it would be an act of charity to give the runt the benefit of the doubt and in its future effusions will allow it to use the chestnut slogan, "you are a liar," as a defense at all times. This is merely child's play and the "Evening Shadow's" infant is certainly in the latter category.

Again, in order to bolster up Judge Hamilton's chances for re-election the "Shadow" says that neither Senator Abraham or Mr. Jones pay their debts and that a bill, or bills, have been sent to this city for collection on the latter gentlemen and returned as uncollectible. No doubt the same transaction has taken place with a hundred of Roseburg's most substantial business men—bills "turned down" because they were not legitimate ones, or forced upon them by some designing person whose service, or goods, have not been delivered according to contract. As the malvolence writer in the "Pill Sheet" fails to go into details regarding Mr. Jones' standing, giving the names of those responsible for the accusations regarding his financial standing, reference being made thereto only by innuendo, it is not probable that any thinking man will be lead to believe campaign lies sprung on the public by the nefarious organ, the "Evening Shadow," propelled by a diseased mind.

Then, because Hon. Albert Abraham is a prominent member of the republican party, and because he has not only a reputation in Douglas county, but throughout the state of Oregon for absolute integrity and veracity, Judge Hamilton and his tool sees the necessity in the pursuit of their hereditary object of attempting to destroy the republican party, to besmirch the name of Senator Abraham by a libelous paragraph appearing in last evening's issue. This is not the first article that has appeared in this libelous rag that emanated through and on behalf of Judge Hamilton. When Hamilton made the undignified outbreak on the bench against the legislature for creating Judge Coke's office, the "Evening Shadow," in a front page article, quoted Hamilton as having said in the secrecy of the judge's chamber these malicious words: "I wonder how long we will continue to send petty-foggling lawyers to the legislature?" Can anything smaller, or more malicious be conceived of, from one who claims to have the proper qualifications for a judge?

Regarding the statement that trades-people are compelled to sue Mr. Abraham for accounts due them The News believes this is an absolute falsehood and is of the opinion that Abraham pays enough bills in a single year, for living expenses alone, to keep the half-starved editor of the "Evening Shadow" alive, and in what he would deem luxury, for a lifetime. While Mr. Abraham may be "slow" at times he has never repudiated an honest debt, to the knowledge of The News, and we think he is "going come" now and that is what is worrying the emancipated apparition who injects the daily dose of strychnine into the columns of the "Evening Shadow," more than the spinal obstructions to his digestive apparatus with which he is afflicted.

If there is any cause in the community that needs the backing of a genuine shyator—with a bray like an ass—the "Pill Organ" can deliver the goods.

This would be quite a "dry" local campaign were it not for the fact that Judge Hamilton is again running for office. This latter fact has caused quite a "sweat" in local circles.

Be careful you don't get "mixed" on the liquor question. Things are coming quite fast at the present time occasionally quite "dry" and then a little "wet".

It's hard to tell which way the wind blows—during campaign days.

RESOLUTION AGAINST COUNTY DIVISION.

Pacific Grange Bulletin: Resolutions from Rescue Grange No. 420, Douglas County, Oregon:

Resolved by Rescue Grange No. 420 that it would be detrimental to the best interests of the farmers to divide Douglas county.

Resolved that the proposed Amendment to the constitution of the state of Oregon giving to cities and towns full control of the liquor traffic within their corporate limits and not allowing the farmers to have a vote on the proposition of whether they should go wet or dry, is not to the best interests of the farmers.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Master of the Oregon State Grange with a request that they be brought before every Grange in Oregon with a request from Rescue Grange No. 420 to vote both measures down.

T. L. LEE, Deputy Master for Douglas county.

Eugene Guard: O. P. Coshow, Sr., of Brownsville, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Howe, at 223 West Twelfth street for some time, fell while getting out of a buggy in front of Mr. Howe's office on Olive street this afternoon about 2 o'clock and broke his left hip. Mr. Howe and Mr. Coshow had driven from home to the office and as Mr. Coshow, who is 70 years of age, lit on the pavement he stumbled and fell. He was unable to arise and it was soon seen he was seriously hurt. It was found that his hip was fractured and a physician and an ambulance were sent for. He was taken to the Eugene hospital where the fracture was reduced. On account of his extreme age it will be a long time before he is able to be out of the hospital. (The injured man is the father of Attorney O. P. Coshow, of this city.)
