

HIGH-CLASS ENGRAVING FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

A. S. Huey, the Jeweler, Takes Another Step Forward.

That Roseburg is rapidly becoming more metropolitan in its ideas and that the jewelry store of A. S. Huey is fast growing bigger and better is best attested by the fact that Mr. Huey has been compelled, by rush of business, to make another decided improvement in the personnel of his popular jewelry store.

Appreciating the need and demand for high-class jewelry engraving in Roseburg, Mr. Huey has recently brought from San Francisco, Mr. J. A. Jenkins, an engraver of exceptional ability, and is now prepared to turn out your special engravings for Christmas gifts and other presents in short order.

If you are contemplating making jewelry gifts for Christmas that require extraordinary skill in the engraving, it will be wise for you to make your selections early from Mr. Huey's fine stock of Christmas jewelry, watches, rings, etc.—then the monograms and inscriptions can be executed leisurely and of course in a more artistic manner.

If you want something extremely nobby in the suit line see the fine display of fall samples at Slopers' cleaning and pressing house, Jackson street, opposite Sykes' Hardware store. All kinds of cleaning, pressing and repair work for gentlemen done on short notice.

GENERAL DRAYING

A branch of a raspberry bush filled with berries in all stages of development from the blossom to the ripe fruit, taken from the garden of W. F. Rodolf, was presented to this office today by the gentleman. This is November 22, and still raspberries are ripening in Roseburg. This condition beats a foot of snow and zero weather.

Mrs. Genevieve Barnes has filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court against her husband, Robert A. Barnes, in which she alleges desertion. The plaintiff claims that she and her husband were married at Woodland, Cal., on October 8, 1904, and later came to Douglas county. She says that in the year 1907 her husband apparently became dissatisfied with married life, and without the least cause or provocation left her and has since remained away. She alleges that one child was born to their union. Aside from a decree the plaintiff asks for the custody of their minor child, $40 per month alimony, sufficient funds with which to support the child, the costs and disbursements of the suit, and such other relief as the court may deem advisable. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney George Neuner.
