IN OUR WINDOW IS A SIGN WHICH READ "WANTED - ANOTHER CUSTOMER"

And we are getting them. Time is proving to the citizens of Roseburg that we are giving you better values for your money than ever obtained in the grocery line before. In our own small way we are fighting the trusts. We belong to no associations and we are trying to give you all the best the market affords for your money. Quick sales and small profits is our motto. We play no favorites. 90 cents is worth a $1 at our store to you. Try us for prices on groceries before buying elsewhere. On every $25 Order we Pay your Freight to all surrounding points. Before buying your Christmas candies for church and schools get our prices. We have just received 100 buckets of choice and fancy Romonia Candies for Christmas.

We Welcome you to step in and see our display and prices.

The several Christmas entertainments held at the various churches in the city Saturday evening were well attended and everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. In some instances Christmas trees were held, and suffice to say that the youngsters fared well.

In order to display his appreciation of his employes during the year, Winnie Gaddis, the local plumber, presented each of his plumbers with a tool sack, such as are used in the metropolitan shops. To those working on sewers and in his office he gave a box of cigars. Suffice to say by the recipients.

Coos Bay Times: J. Reed, a young stranger who claims to be a cook, was arrested by Marshal Carter last evening and on him found several articles stolen by a snag thief from Dorsey Kreitzer's residence Thursday night. Later today the suspect said his name was Joseph Kelley instead of Reed and said his home was in Pennsylvania. He claims he is innocent of the alleged crime and alleges he secured the emblems in Washington some time ago. He came to Coos Bay about ten days ago from Roseburg.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Poole, at 131 S. Flint street, late Saturday evening, when their daughter, Miss Lorna D. Poole was united in marriage to Joseph Cobb. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties by Rev. K. M. Meers, pastor of the Methodist church, South. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cobb are well and favorably known in Roseburg and vicinity. The bride is a daughter of John B. Poole, an employe of the Benson Grocery Company while Mr. Cobb is a well known plumber resident of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will make their home on a ranch a short distance south of this city.
