LENTEN SEASON.

Will Be Observed By Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, was observed by the local Catholic and Episcopal churches Wednesday with usual services. Special services will continue throughout the Lenten season.

In addition to the regular morning masses which every Catholic is supposed to attend during the forty days of Lent, there will be special services of penance every Wednesday and Friday evening during Lent.

Archbishop Christie has issued the following statement of rules to be observed by Catholics in his diocese during the Lenten season:

1. The use of flesh meat is allowed at every meal on Sundays, as well as the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, Saturdays of the Ember days and holy week excepted.

2. The use of fish, milk, butter and eggs is permitted on all days of Lent at the evening collation, and the principal meals on these days on which the use of flesh meat is forbidden.

3. In the morning a small piece of bread is allowed with a cup of coffee, tea, chocolate or some similar drink.

4. When the principal meal cannot be taken before noon, the order may be inverted and the collation taken in the morning and the dinner in the evening.

5. Lard and grease may be used in preparing the lawful victuals.

6. Those of the faith who are exempt from the obligation of fasting can, on the days when the use of flesh meat is permitted to all of the faithful, be allowed to use it several times a day, as on the Sundays of Lent, when the obligation is not binding. The use of both flesh meat and fish together at the same meal is strictly forbidden during the whole of Lent.

Dispensation for Working People.
7. By virtue of the authority conceded to bishops in the United States by a recent pontifical indult, permission is granted to "working people" to use meat on all days of Lent, with the exception of Fridays, Ash Wednesday and the Saturday of holy week.

This dispensation from abstinence extends to all three repasts in the day.

The usual prohibition remains against using flesh meat and fish at the same meal.

Where the wage earner, in virtue of the indult, uses meat, all the members of the household may likewise use it. The church does not wish to impose upon the household the inconvenience of double cooking. But in cases of this kind those members of the household who may be bound by the precept of fasting are allowed the use of meat only at their principal repast.

Those Who Need Not Fast.

The following persons are exempt from fasting: All those who have not attained their 21st year or who have passed their sixtieth year; those whose weak health or condition otherwise may demand the full amount of nourishment, and all those whose occupations are of a laborious or exhausting nature.

Those who are excused from fasting, on account of age or hard labor, may use flesh meat more than once on the days on which it is allowed.

It is eminently in accordance with the spirit of the church that all those who use the dispensations from the fast and abstinence, should supply, in part, the spirit of penance, by prayers and alms deeds; by avoiding all public shows, parties and amusements, and by abstaining from all intoxicating beverages.

ERNEST GAMBLE CONCERT PARTY

FOURTH NUMBER OF THE LYCEUM COURSE.

Will Be Given at the Presbyterian Church Friday, March 10.

The Ernest Gamble Concert Party was formed in the belief that there is always a sufficient number of discriminating people interested in hearing good music delightfully and attractively presented, to support a high class and expensive attraction. The fact that this is the twelfth consecutive and successful season is eloquent testimony that The Gamble Party is a great favorite with music lovers. There is no other musical organization that has been so continuously before the public as this one and it stands today facile princeps.

Its work lies on a lofty plane of artistic endeavor. Its selections are from the standard classics, its elaborately arranged de luxe programs stimulate its listeners. The artists of the party are more than "entertainers," they are educators in that their concerts uplift and cultivate a taste for better things and that too without performing over the heads of their audience.

This is why talent of this caliber is so much more valuable to a community than the average concert company. The Gamble concerts make an audience grow individually and collectively. Each member of the party is young and is chosen for his individual merit and for his artistic value to the program as a whole. The program is shared equally, there being no star and no inferior supporting members. Each artist is the product of the greatest European masters.

The combination of voice, piano and violin is ideal. The party is small, numerically but big artistically. It takes but one David Bispham to give a fine recital, or a single Russell Conwell to deliver "Acorns of Diamonds," and so this small, but select company gives better satisfaction than many larger companies.

Paul Pearson, of Swarthmore College said the party's programs were "not so popular as to be musically cheap, and not so severely classical as not to be popular, while another critic described their concerts as "the acute accentuation of merit."

The admission is within the reach of all. 50 cents and 25 cents, no reserved seats. We want the public to enjoy this musical treat. Roseburg Ministerial Union.

BUSCH THE WINNER.

"Toe Hold" On Dyrberg Dislocates the Latter's Ankle at Medford.

Medford Sun: A sport-loving audience of several hundred persons last night saw Carl Busch, middle-weight champion wrestler of Germany, defeat L. W. Dyrberg, wrestling instructor of the Sacramento athletic club, in the contest pulled off at the Natatorium.

The bout, which was matched to be best two falls out of three, with no time limit, ended abruptly after the two big men had battled for fifty three minutes without either securing a fall.

In grasping Dyrberg in a "jam toe-hold," Busch unfortunately threw Dyrberg's ankle out of place, with the result that the latter was forced to give up the contest.

During the time that Dyrberg was being attended by a physician, Busch exhibited his remarkable muscular development in a series of poses.

Busch was pitted against agility and quickness when he met Dyrberg, and several times during the fifty-three minutes Busch secured holds upon his antagonist which, on a man less subtle, would have meant defeat.

When it was discovered that the injury to Dyrberg's ankle was too severe to permit of his returning to the mat, he gave up and Referee Joe Memphis proclaimed Busch the winner.

Before the men stepped upon the mat, Timeskeeper Frankie Edwards introduced Joe Memphis of Medford, and Jack Renz, also of this city, who challenged the winner of the contest.

log the two aspirants; at the suggestion of Busch, tossed a coin, in calling which Renz won the choice. He will wrestle Busch at the Natatorium Friday evening, March 19.

The main event last night was preceded by a thirty minute limit catch as catch can match between Frank Slocum and Coy Watson, both of Medford. Watson secured the first fall in four minutes, and six minutes afterwards was himself put down by Slocum. The third fall was secured in seventeen minutes by Watson, and he was awarded the decision.

One of the features of the match last night was the fact that it was patronized by a number of ladies. The management had given its guarantee that no objectionable features would mar the performance and at its conclusion those of the ladies asked for an opinion were unanimous in their praise, both of the match itself and the entertainment it afforded.
