Bro. Noah had his Ark papered, and Roseburg has heretofore used the style and designs he used then. Now, in all sense, can't you look at something new? See what they are using in civilized countries. It won't cost you a cent to look at them, anyway, and then you can tell your grandchildren what you saw at Fisher's Paint and Wall Paper Store on Oak street. Phone 333. dtf

A plot of the land recently purchased by Walter Hamilton, Sam Miller and Thomas and W. L. Cobb, and formerly known as the Moses Parrott place, was filed with the county court this morning. The land adjoins the city on the south, and is now in readiness to place on the market. The disposal of the city lots will commence Monday morning, and indications lead to show that the land will meet with ready sale.

The News received the following letter from Joe Mende, who is at present at Medford, this morning and the same is self-explanatory: "Would you kindly publish my challenge in your valuable paper as I am after the scalp of Carl Busch. I agree to throw Busch three times within an hour, catch as catch can style, the winner to take all the gate receipts. If Mr. Busch thinks he can stay one hour with me without being thrown three times, he can have all the money. My weight is 225 pounds and I am 6 feet tall." It is quite probable that Busch will accept the challenge, and that the match will be arranged for some date following the production of the Elks' Minstrels in this city.
