SOUTH DEER CREEK NEWS.

Last Friday evening a number of our young people attended a dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, of Roseburg. Mrs. Hammond is a daughter of Chas. Embree, a local saw mill owner.

Mr. Farley, the popular and genial piano tuner of Roseburg, has been making the rounds of this section, putting the pianos in condition.

Sam Schweibard is putting in some woven wire fencing for Roy Hatfield.

Last week he finished fencing Dr. Bailey's orchard.

Clark Johnson, Sr., who has been confined to the house with a serious illness, is able to be around again. He was attended by Dr. Miller, of Roseburg.

The county fruit inspector has had all the seedling apple trees along the roadside cut down, to the delight of the orchardists, but to the disgust of the small boy.

Our district road supervisor, E. C. Davin, has been replacing several bridges that were beginning to be unsafe. He is at present ditching and grading the roads of this section.

Miss Bertha Karcher and Miss Xenia Casbeer members of the South Deer Creek Grange, attended as delegates the session of the grange held in honor of Mr. Whitehead at Roseburg Thursday evening.
