

BARGAIN SALE AT THE Bargain Cash Grocery BETTER GROCERIES

Although our prices are less than any other retail grocer in the city we are never satisfied with anything but the very best quality that can be obtained in the market. Keep that in mind when you read these astounding prices. We have just received another car load of Red Ribbon Flour. This makes 5 car loads since we opened July 19, 1910, that has been used by Roseburg people. This alone would certainly give this flour its reputation, every sack guaranteed to you or your money returned. We quote a few of the many bargains we offer this week for cash. Save all your coupons, they are valuable, as we will show you soon.

To The Public

Mrs. A. C. Kidd & Son take this opportunity of thanking their patrons and friends for their liberal patronage in the past.

Having bought out the firm of Milledge & Pickens Brothers, and combined our stock with theirs, in the room formerly occupied by that firm, we are now in a better position than ever to cater to all your wants in the line of fancy and staple groceries.

We attribute our success in the past to courteous treatment and honest dealings, and by continuing the same policy we hope to keep all of our old customers and add many new ones to our number in our new and enlarged quarters.

H. Guest, the baker, went to Rocklea this morning to spend a couple of days attending to business matters.

Captain Page and wife, of Drain, spent Sunday in the city visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Page.

Clifford Jensen, wife and child, arrived in Roseburg yesterday to attend the funeral of the former's father, the late Frank W. Benson.

Fred Ziegler, for the past ten years connected with a Portland printing house, is in the city visiting with old time friends. His wife and children have been here for some weeks visiting.

Wallace Benson, of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Steiner, arrived in Roseburg last evening to attend the funeral of the late Frank W. Benson, which occurs here Tuesday morning.

Among those who purchased lots in Miller's Addition to the city of Roseburg today are the following: E. L. Eddy, two lots; Mrs. Phyllis Wilson, two lots; J. J. Alexander, one lot.

T. L. Lee, county grange organizer, left for Kellogg and other points in the northern part of the county yesterday. Concluding his business there he will proceed to Corvallis where he is scheduled to attend a meeting of the state grange.

Myrtle Creek Mail: Fred Fisher was arrested by Constable Bayless on a charge made by Chas. Taylor, deputy game and fish warden, of placing saw dust in a trout stream. He was arraigned before Justice J. S. Gaffner and pleaded not guilty.

The funeral of the late Sidney McCoy was held at the family residence, in Edenbowser, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment followed at the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The funeral was well attended, while the floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

Among those registered at the Grand hotel today are the following: J. L. Furland, Decatur, Ill.; John Cartwell, Eugene; K. E. Maxwell, Grants Pass; E. A. Brown, Portland; A. C. Sanders, Glendale; C. B. Weiss, Portland; Mrs. W. A. Worstell, La Grande, Ore.

Rail breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no account" feeling is a sure sign of a torpid liver. HEB-BINE is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active vitalizes the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by Marston's Drug Co.

Claud Martin spent Sunday at Winchester angling for trout and was successful in bringing home a string of five trout, a dozen of which he left at the door of his neighbor, G. W. Sloper, and The News' editor, dropping into Mr. Sloper's residence about noon today, is in a position to vouch for the quality.

W. C. Crittendon, of the W. F. Boardman Gas Company, of San Francisco, arrived in Roseburg this morning to be present at the regular meeting of the city council tonight, at which time the application for a gas franchise will be considered. Mr. Crittendon informed a News representative this afternoon that his company would insist upon a franchise for 50 years, but might concede to reduce the price of gas at the expiration of twenty years. Mr. Crittendon visited most of the councilmen during the day, and this afternoon appeared poised at the attitude displayed. He says that the franchise will probably pass this evening as the sentiment seems to favor the erection and maintenance of such a plant in this city.

F. J. Bursik, of Melrose, was in the city today. In speaking of the recent frost the gentleman said that it did his orchard little, if any damage. Almonds were not injured, and his peaches are unharmed.

Richard Willett, for so long the popular butter maker at the Douglas County Creamery, but who recently went to California with the expectation of remaining there permanently, then returned to Roseburg after two months spent in the Golden State, informed The News today that he will open up a first class creamery and ice cream manufacturing establishment in this city just as soon as he can find desirable quarters for the plant. Mr. Willett will make a specialty of the gift edge product in butter for which he earned an enviable reputation here, and for the manufacture of a superior grade of ice cream. Willett is so well known that his venture will meet with pronounced success.
