

10,000 MEN WALK OUT

Mechanics on Pennsylvania Railroad Strike.

FAILED TO REACH SOUTH POLE

Extreme Cold on March 10 Forced Japanese Expedition to Return North—Fair Trial Assured at Los Angeles.

(Special to The Evening News.)
PITTSBURG, May 2.—With from 7,500 to 10,000 men already out and additional walkouts expected, the Pennsylvania Railroad officials are preparing for a bitter struggle with employees in the shops. Union officials charge that the railroad company months ago began a systematic fight against organized labor, dropping union men whenever possible, but this statement General Manager Long denies. Strikebreakers are being imported to the Pittsburg shops and also to Altoona. There has been no disorder or acts of violence.

Japs Frozen Out.

TOKIO, May 2.—Lieutenant Shirase, leader of the Japanese expedition sent out in search of the south pole, and who swore to succeed or die in the attempt, has failed in the undertaking and is also alive. Dispatches from Sidney, Australia, today, tell of the return of the Japs. The expedition reached 74 degrees, but was obliged to turn back on account of cold on March 16. Three other expeditions are now enroute to the south pole, but the Japanese believe disappointment also awaits them.

Fair Trial Assured.

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—With both sides practically conceding that public opinion is fair, the indications are that the defense for the McNamara Brothers will not ask a change of venue. District Attorney Fredricks says that he will try the case on its merits, looking upon it as a great criminal case without thinking of either the capitalist or labor issues connected therewith.

According to I. R. Smith, manager of the local telephone exchange, the citizens of Oakland are considering the advisability of purchasing the water and light plant at that city as well as gaining control of the telephone lines operated through the Oakland exchange. The city council is hostile in favor of municipal ownership and believe that better service can be furnished at a lesser cost than under present conditions.

Thomas Hensley, who has been employed by Contractor Wm. G. Gaddis for some time past, was quite seriously injured shortly after 11 o'clock this morning. As a result he will be compelled to refrain from work for several weeks. In company with other laborers, Hensley was working in a ditch, near Second Avenue South, in North Roseburg, when a quantity of shale rock which had become loosened caved in with the result that he was partially buried. Companions rushed to his assistance, and he was rescued from his perilous position almost immediately. Having no relatives in the city, the injured man was sent to Mercy hospital by Contractor Gaddis, where he will remain until such time as he is able to resume his duties. One of his ankles was mashed, while the other is more or less bruised.

HOBOS MUST MOVE

Two Extra Policemen Authorized by City Council.

TENTATIVE BIDS ARE CONSIDERED

Definite Action is Postponed For Two Weeks—Usual Grist of Bills Are Allowed and Ordered Paid.

The most spirited discussion at last evening's meeting of the city council prevailed in regard to ridding the town of an undesirable class of transients, familiarly known as hobos.

Councilman Mullen said that the time was at hand when the executive department of the city should take some drastic action relative to abating the hobo nuisance, regardless of the expense it might incur. He said that Roseburg was fast attaining a reputation among the transient class of people, and that immediate steps should be taken by the officers in the direction of protecting the better class of citizens who are daily accosted by these individuals in quest of something to eat.

Councilman Mullen, and declared that he counted no less than 50 transients loitering about his property south of town yesterday. He further said that they had little regard for honest police, and made a practice of stealing everything in sight. "Why," said Mullen, "only a few days ago a number of transients stole at least a cord of wood from my premises, say nothing of other thefts of a less important nature. I believe that we should 'get busy' immediately as the hobo nuisance is becoming a grave question in this vicinity."

Mayor Hayes said that the hobos had been ordered out of town time and time again, but without avail. "There is but one way in which we can rattle this class of citizens," said the mayor, "and that is in the establishment and maintenance of a rock pile. The executive department is willing to act in this event this council will authorize the expense that will result in the employment of additional officers which are necessary in order to properly combat with the situation."

Without further discussion, Councilman Mullen advanced a motion to the effect that two additional policemen be employed, and that they confine their duties to ridding the town of hobos and other undesirable citizens. The motion carried by the unanimous vote of the council, and it is probable that the mayor will announce the appointees some time tomorrow.

Bids Are Delayed.

The matter of considering the tentative bids of the Clark & Henry Construction Company which were recommended at a previous meeting of the council came up for final disposition last evening, but upon motion of Councilman Krohn were deferred for two weeks. The bids as submitted by the Clark & Henry Construction Company at a previous meeting are tentative in their construction, and effect about forty blocks of contemplated pavement. At the time they were first considered it was decided to defer action upon request of the Granacrete Paving Company, representatives of which asked for time in which to consult property owners residing on the several streets to be paved. Last evening the Granacrete Company again requested a delay in the proceedings upon the grounds that they had been unable to interview all of the property owners personally and to their satisfaction.

Councilman Krohn contended that the Clark & Henry Company had several months of work ahead at this time, and that it was only fair to the property owners to allow additional time that they might investigate the merits of the new pavement. Councilman Jones declared that the council should listen to the people as they were the ones who would be compelled to foot the bills in the event the pavement was laid as contemplated. He was emphatic in his assertion that the competing company should be given at least two weeks in which to consult the property owners and submit their proposition.

A representative of the Granacrete Company was present at the meeting, and in a brief address, explained that he had been unable to consult with all the property owners on the streets contemplated for pavement, and consequently thought his company should be granted at least two weeks longer in which to complete its investigations. Councilman Housk was of the opinion that complications might result in the event the council persisted in delaying the matter of awarding the contracts, and especially at this time.

After a lengthy discussion the motion was placed to a vote, and the competing company was given two weeks in which to consult the property owners and file their petitions. It is probable that final action will be taken in the matter of awarding the contracts at the meeting to be held two weeks hence, regardless of requests for further time. The pavement recommended by the street committee at a previous meeting of the council is specified as proposition No. 1, which will be used on level streets, and proposition No. 5 which will be laid on sloping streets and hillsides. Both propositions called for asphalt pavement, and were submitted by the Clark & Henry Construction Company.

Bill is Turned Down.

The bill submitted by J. G. Cook & Company, in the sum of $5, for rent of the hose house for the month of March furnished food for a lengthy discussion. Councilman Housk said that he believed that the bill should be allowed, and accordingly advanced a motion to such effect. The motion was seconded by Councilman Baker. Councilman Mirell protested against paying the bill as did other members of the council who considered it unjust. Upon being

DETECTIVES ARRESTED

Accused of Bribing Senators in State of Ohio.

LEGISLATORS ALLEGED CRAFTERS

Detective Burns Says That Ohio Senators Are a Bunch of Crafters And Are Unworthy of Serious Attention.

(Special to The Evening News.)
COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 2.—Following the arrest of three detectives in the employ of Detective Burns for attempting to bribe members of the state legislature, the general impression prevails today that the eagerness of the sleuths to clutch the case has betrayed them.

Senators Andrews, Cetone and Huffman are among those who admit taking money, and declare that they did it for the purpose of bringing the supposed lobbyists to justice and with no other end in view. Such will be the plea of all members who accepted the detectives' coin.

Legislators Are Crafters.

COLUMBUS, May 2.—Detective Burns, who arrived here today said that the legislators involved were the biggest and boldest bunch of crafters he had ever encountered. The Burns detectives testified before the grand jury today. They claim that they have the case clinched against the legislators.

WE BELIEVE

The best way to make people think we sell fine things is to sell fine things. Sounds very simple and easy doesn't it? Well, anything is easy; like Columbus standing that egg on end. Selling the finest things at moderate prices is easy because we know how—because we have the lines. We sell only clothes that are of a known and tried quality and reputation. We fit every garment to your measure and keep them pressed for you. Ours is a store that will make and keep you a satisfied customer. We want you to come to us and see our goods; they will speak for themselves more than we can ourselves.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Roseburg Feed and Fuel Co., with offices on Winchester Street, will be prepared to supply the wants of the people of Roseburg and vicinity, beginning May 8th, and will carry at all times a good line of feed and fuel. We expect to make some very attractive prices on both these lines, and will be especially prepared to take care of fuel contracts. Do not contract for your winter's supply of fuel until we have a chance to figure with you. We have no $10.00 wood in stock, and do not expect to have. Feed prices, as well as fuel prices, will meet the approval of the customer. Call and get acquainted, whether you wish to buy or not. If legitimate profits, full measure and prompt attention will obtain a share of your business, you will be a customer of ours sooner or later. We will make our own deliveries, assuring promptness and correctness. Call up telephone 163, or call at office personally. We want your custom, and will use every legitimate means to secure it. Your orders will receive our prompt and careful attention.

Very respectfully,
ROSEBURG FEED & FUEL CO.
W. C. Swank, Manager
