FITTING CLIMAX.

Portland Visitors Entertained—Prizes Awarded.

As a fitting climax to the day's festivities the Portland visitors were entertained at both the Elks' hall and the Roseburg Commercial Club rooms last evening. Being the regular meeting night of the Roseburg lodge of Elks all visiting brothers were invited to attend, and that they enjoyed the occasion goes without saying. The regular business meeting was practically suspended, and the entire evening was given up to feasting and other entertaining features. At the commercial club rooms a reception was in progress during the evening, to which both the gentlemen visitors and their ladies were invited. The local reception committee, composed of both ladies and gentlemen, were on hand, and that they done themselves proud was the expression of the Portland delegation. Light refreshments were served. Following the reception at the commercial club and lodges meeting in the Elks' hall, the guests were escorted to the depot where they were given a hearty farewell. The special train of seven Pullman cars, transporting the Portland contingent, left for the metropolis at promptly 11 o'clock as scheduled, with all aboard.

The Portland delegation appeared well pleased with their visit to Roseburg, and brand the people of this city entertainers of ability. Many of those who were given an opportunity to visit the country districts declare that they will return here at some future date, at which time they will invest in Douglas county real estate. Prizes Are Awarded.

Prizes for the best exhibits at the rose show, in the Booth building, at the corner of Oak and Jackson streets, were awarded late yesterday afternoon. A. C. Clark, Guy M. Pillington and John A. Keating, all well known Portland men, acted as judges. Only first prizes were awarded.

The prizes follow:
 Mrs. W. L. Cobb, best four La Frances.
 Mrs. H. S. French, best general exhibit.
 Mrs. Niel McCall, best 4 Papa Gontler.
 Mrs. Niel McCall, best Hybrid Perpetual.
 Mrs. J. C. Aiken, best Tea.
 Mrs. Lore, best yellow Hybrid Tea.
 Mrs. E. Winston, best yellow Tea.
 Mrs. Grace Elder, Scio-palates.
 Mrs. H. S. French, best four pink roses.

Automobile Prizes.
 The prizes awarded in yesterday's decorated automobile parade were announced by Mayor Haynes this afternoon. The judges were H. Schmeier, of the United States National Bank, Portland; B. Lee Paget, of the Portland Trust Company, and E. L. Schell, a prominent Portland merchant.

The prizes follow:

MEET IN ROSEBURG.

The Oregon State Grange will meet in Roseburg next year, according to a message received from T. L. Lee, county organizer, who is circulating a petition of the state grange at Corvallis. It is probable that next year's meeting will commence on the second Tuesday in May and continue for three days. Much credit is due Mr. Lee for the interest he displayed in bringing next year's meeting of the grange to Roseburg.

FRIENDS

Fellow Citizens, Men, Women and Children

You are most cordially invited to call at our store to inspect, what we consider, the great improvements to our plant.

Many of you know of this, but it will give us pleasure to have you call again, for we have them practically completed, with the exception of the non arrival of some stock.

In connection with our basement department we have fitted up what we term a Ladies' Rest Room. It is intended for ladies only, and in it will be found beside toilet accommodations, a couch, easy chairs, table, etc. It is our desire this will be used by all ladies whether they call at our store to trade or not.

The basement department will be in charge of a competent saleswoman, who will be pleased to extend any courtesy to all.

Don't forget that the location is at the old Iron-mongers stand; corner Oak and Jackson.
