

The Rexall Smile

Notice the expression of joy on the face of man or woman who is telling of the benefit derived from taking the Rexall Remedy which was designed especially for the disease from which he or she suffered.

It's a real pleasure to testify as to the merits of such Remedies. If you know anything that will help your fellow men, tell it. If you have tried Rexall tell your experience. If you haven't tried Rexall do so and you'll probably have experience that will bring that expression of joy.

The druggists at the Rexall Store will be interested in your welfare and if you are not satisfied with the remedy they sell you, the purchase price is yours and they want you to have it.

Paul Pierce left for Grants Pass yesterday where he will spend some time visiting with friends and relatives.
Charles Harrison (colored), who was recently sentenced to an indefinite term of from one to five years in the state penitentiary for accepting money from fallen women, was taken to the institution yesterday morning. On Saturday, Harrison appeared before the district attorney and requested a parole on the grounds that he was ignorant of the laws regarding crimes of this nature. It is not probable that the district attorney will make any recommendations in Harrison's behalf, considering the fact that his crime is considered a very serious one.

D. C. Pitzer, a local real estate man, who has been spending the past two months in the East returned here yesterday morning. Mr. Pitzer says that he has been most disappointed during his sojourn, hundreds of whom contemplate locating in Oregon at some future time. Mr. Pitzer reports the weather very warm in Iowa, and says the crops are materially damaged. That he is pleased to get back to Roseburg and Douglas county goes without saying.
Another sad death occurred in Roseburg last evening, when Mrs. William Allen, aged 52 years, and wife of a Roseburg-Marsfield stage driver, died very suddenly of heart failure. Aside from a husband who survived by five sons, Zeke, Byron, Harvey, Anderson and Cecil, and one daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Curtis of Vancouver, Wash. She also leaves several brothers and sisters, several of whom reside in Douglas county. One sister, Mrs. A. M. Drilling, lives in Roseburg. Mrs. Allen has resided in Roseburg for many years and is well known in this vicinity.
