

EDENBOWER LETTER.

Matters of interest from that Rapidly Growing District.

The frame of the new butcher shop is about completed, and the building will be finished and ready for business by the latter part of next week.

The family covered wagons now passing through town come mostly from the north, evidently from the Willamette valley. The number from California has not been as large as heretofore during the past week.

Mrs. John Botcher has been quite ill during the week, caused doubtless by the late heat term. She is decidedly better at this writing.

Wednesday night a searching party was out to a late hour hunting for a young lad named Oscar Nelson. The boy had before been devoting all spare time at his disposal for the South Umpqua river, and when he did not show up at home for ten hours his relatives became startled at his absence. The party looking for him got back home about 11:30, and had found no trace of him, but then they found him in bed and sound asleep. His story was that he had been playing with the "kids" and had forgotten to come home sooner. It is hardly necessary to state that Oscar has not been forgetful about coming home since.

Drs. Houck, Vinell and Miller have been making repeated calls at this place and Winchester within the last few days, and every time they appeared to be in a hurry, and nothing was learned from them.

W. H. Morley's youngest daughter came near being fatally gored by an angry cow Monday. The cow was supposed to be very gentle, but on this occasion the child got before the animal and was butted over with considerable force. Before the cow could use her horns, an older sister rushed to the rescue and drove the angry brute away. Outside the shock of the butting and the loss of one of her teeth, the child suffered no injury, but she would have undoubtedly suffered a horrible death had it not been for this prompt action of her brave sister.

Mrs. B. O. Flee, of Roseburg, is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Findlay, in Edenbower.

The house occupied by H. W. Penkey, who is caring for the young chickens and turkeys on Hannon & Patton's place, was entered while he was away to the store Monday morning to procure feed for his broods and thoroughly ransacked. The parties must have known how long he would be absent, for they cooked and eat a meal, leaving all the dishes and cooking utensils dirty, stole all of his tobacco and carried off a note for the last payment on some property lately sold by Mr. Pankey. The note will be worthless to anyone but the owner, as he says he will never give a deed until he gets his money.

The German, who was reported to have committed suicide by drowning is thought to have been in Edenbower Friday morning. An individual answering his description applied to the county home for indications for something to eat and a place to sleep, which was given him by Superintendent Findlay. After he ate his supper he told several of the inmates he intended to apply to the county judge for admission to the home next morning, which he did not do, and if he was refused he would drown himself in the river. If it was the man, the coroner who buried him can establish the fact beyond doubt, as the man had a very sore leg, one of his legs having a disgusting sore between the ankle and the knee joint.

The citizens of Edenbower think they are not being fairly treated in school matters. Many of their children are compelled to tramp through all kinds of weather two miles to school, when this could be avoided and but justice done to the children and their parents if the present school was enlarged and higher grades than are at present taught. Many believe that much of the congestion reported in the public schools of Roseburg might be thus relieved and justice be done everybody.

Florence, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Finlay is quite sick with what Dr. Seely, who is attending, pronounces a severe attack of indigestion.

COLES VALLEY NONSENSE.

The weather is quite warm here now. Last week was the warmest and longest period of hot weather we have had for several years.

In spite of the warm weather the farmers are making hay and it is fast disappearing within the barns.

Tom Maddox is working here for Frank Churchill. Tom resides in Cleveland and is quite a whistler.

Melvin Ellison was the guest of Miss Dorothy Evans last Sunday evening.

Quite a number of the young people were out "joy riding" last Sunday both in buggy and also some on horse back.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson is in the valley visiting friends and relatives and attending to business matters concerning her farm here.

Miss Abeen returned home last week. She has been here visiting with friends.

David G. Churchill and Henry Chron were in the valley last Sunday.

Miss Ellison and Mr. Cranfill were out auto riding last Sunday.

Mr. Bayless went camping last Sunday and just stayed one day.

Last Monday was the scene of a very sad funeral when Joe West's little daughter, aged 8 months was laid to rest in the Coles Valley cemetery. The valley people extend their deepest sympathy to the home of Mr. West, in Millwood. "Thank God, we may all meet our darling daughter and friends in the near future."
