SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1911.

These warm days are all right, but oh, you cool nights.

A country exchange says: "Owing to the overcrowded condition of our advertising columns a number of births have been postponed until next issue."

We thought there was a warm day or two last week in this section, but listen to an Iowa editor: It is so dry that wagons are going around with their tongues out. Ice has to be soaked in water all night before it is wet enough to make lemonade. The catfish kick up such a dust in the bed of the river that the river has to be sprinkled before you can go fishing. A spark from an engine set fire to a pond and burned up a lot of bull frogs. The ground is so dry and hard that crabs holes are being pulled up and used for gas pipes.

In an article in Friday's issue of The News in reference to an extra session of the legislature to consider the good roads measures it was stated that the failure of the bills to pass was due to the legislators. This was an error, the legislature having acted favorably on the good roads law, but Governor West put his stamp of disapproval on the bill for the improvement of Oregon's highways and killed it on the spot. However, The News is of the same opinion in regard to an extra session and does not believe the short coming of the governor should be corrected in this way.

Eugene Register: If this proposition of farming out all the good state jobs around Salem to convicts continues, a man will have to break into the penitentiary to get a job. The basis of qualification will be that you have to be a thief, murderer or something equally as vicious to merit recognition at the hands of the state. Just now a convict is proposed as state printer expert to take the place of some honest man who by his integrity and industry, has worked his way up to the responsible position. If McIntyre is put in his place it will be the greatest travesty upon justice ever enacted in this state.

WANTS FOREST FIRE DATA.

State Forester Desires Prompt Reports On Forest Fires.

The State Forester is constantly getting notice through the daily press and from residents of the state of fires having gotten beyond control after several days fighting, that have not been reported to his office until after becoming a menace to the neighborhood. He wishes to urge upon all state fire wardens the necessity of reporting to him all fires as soon after being discovered as possible, instead of waiting until they become dangerous to life and property. One such fire has just been brought to his notice after having burned three weeks, that might have been controlled and probably entirely extinguished if reported earlier as that proper assistance could have been given.

Every state fire warden, or other persons, in case they are unable to get in touch with a state warden, should telephone or telegraph (collect) F. A. Elliott, state forester, Salem, Oregon, inform him of forest fires before they get beyond control.

Mrs. C. Potter and brother, Claud Potter, left for their home at Vancouver, Wash., this morning after a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pavn, who live in the vicinity of Edenhower.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs and son, Orin, left for Pendleton this morning in response to a telegram announcing the death of the former's sister. The funeral will occur at the Eastern Oregon city on Monday.

Misses Mary and Brittmoarte Cox of Sacramento, Cal., left for their home this morning after spending a few weeks visiting at the home of Kate Dixon, at Dixonville. They go to Portland by rail where they will take a boat for San Francisco.

James Moon, local agent for the New York Life Insurance Company, left for points in the northern part of the state this morning where he will spend a few days looking after business interests. Mr. Moon will spend a few days at Seaside before returning here.

Mrs. Robert Robertson and children left for their home at Portland this morning after spending a few days in Roseburg visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson. Mrs. Robertson was accompanied home by Velma Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lewis.

Ignited from a spark from a Southern Pacific locomotive, two spans of a bridge between Glendale and Wolf Creek were burned late last evening. As a result traffic was somewhat disturbed. Train No. 16, due here at 11 o'clock last evening, arrived shortly before 3 o'clock this morning.

Justice of the Peace Reuben Marsters leaves for the Leon Lake vicinity tomorrow morning where he will spend a month enjoying his annual outing. He will make the trip by private conveyance. Mrs. Marsters and children, who are visiting at Marshfield, will join him Tuesday morning.

C. D. Frazer, purchasing agent for the state institutions, spent yesterday in Roseburg inspecting the Oregon Soldiers' Home. Mr. Frazer was much pleased with conditions at the Home, and especially with the manner in which the affairs of the institution are conducted under the efficient management of W. W. Klato.

H. F. Chatham, who has resided in Roseburg for several years, leaves for New Zealand tonight where he will join his brother, W. H. Chatham, who left for the foreign clime several months ago. Mr. Chatham goes to Portland by rail, thence to San Francisco, by boat where he will remain until August 4, when he will sail for his future home. Mr. Chatham is quite well known in this city and has a host of friends who regret to learn of his decision to leave Roseburg.

Ignited from a spark from a Southern Pacific train, fire last evening destroyed the berry patch, owned by County Bridge Builder Fields and threatened the Alexander bridge. When discovered the flames were making rapid headway and for a time it looked as though assistance would necessarily have to be summoned from the city. Forming a bucket brigade, the residents of the neighborhood battled with the flames for an hour with favorable results. Had there have been a breeze it is possible that the fire would have resulted disastrously, considering the fact that residents in this section of the city are practically without fire protection.

COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION BALANCE

Compensation is the term applied to the methods used to secure a uniformity of time in the varying temperatures to which a watch is exposed.

The cause of the error is the expansion and contractions of metals.

The South Bend Balance wheel is made of two metals of unequal expansion, so proportioned, one to the other, that the expansion and contraction is neutralized perfectly. A South Bend Watch keeps time in all temperatures, as well as in all positions.

A. S. HUBY,
Official Watch Inspector.
