Miss Hendricks, of Eugene, arrived in Roseburg Saturday evening to spend a few days visiting at the J. C. Fullerton home in West Roseburg. Miss Hendricks has been visiting at Los Angeles and other California points and stopped off here enroute home.

Misses Arrie and Allie Black, Lucy Bridges and Elsie Benedict spent Saturday evening at Myrtle Creek where they rendered a delightful musical program at the Baptist church. A large crowd was present and the efforts of the young ladies were much appreciated.

James Conn left for Red Bluff, Cal., yesterday morning accompanied by his daughter who will receive medical treatment at the springs near that place. The young lady has suffered from rheumatism for some time past, and the attending physicians advised that she spend a few weeks at the springs.

I. R. Smith, manager of the local telephone exchange, returned here late Saturday night after a day spent at Myrtle Creek. Mr. Smith says that many of those who suffered losses in the recent fire are already effecting preliminary arrangements preparatory to rebuilding the burned structures.

Attorney Dexter Rice on Saturday disposed of his interests in the beautiful 2,300 acre farm, a few miles south of Roseburg, to J. H. Booth. Mr. Rice and family will return here to live and it is probable that the former will resume the practice of law in the near future. Prior to re-entering the office, however, Mr. Rice will spend two or three weeks at points on the coast. Attorney Rice retired from the practice of law in May on account of ill health, and since that time has resided in the country. He says the change has resulted beneficially, and he believes he is now able to resume his practice.
