A VACATION IN BED.

Twenty-four Hours' Sleep Versus a Week's Holiday.

If you want to obtain complete rest and recuperation equal to a week's va-cation in minimum time sleep the clock around twice is the advice of a physi-cian who holds a high place in medical circles in England.

"To spend twenty-four hours in bed." he said to a friend, "instead of rushing away for a few hours' change of scene when you are run down physically and mentally, is worth a week's holiday. The night before, having gone to a theater to take the mind off worries and having supped wisely and well in structions should be given that the morning calling shall be omitted.
