These gentlemen caused quite a stir in Marshfield a few days ago, when they arrived there quite unexpectedly, and announced that they were about to establish a railroad survey between Marshfield and Roseburg. In fact, their coming to Marshfield furnished considerable food for the press, and it was generally believed that another railroad was being constructed. What the gentlemen are doing in Roseburg is a conjecture as they are skeptical of divulging any amount of information for publication. The gentlemen were entertained today by T. R. A suit was filed in the circuit court today of J. H. Williams, who asks to recover a certain sum of money from J. P. Hestler, who is named as defendant in the action. Upon the defendant's decision to purchase the land, a contract was executed whereby the latter was to make monthly installments, and in addition, pay the sum of $5 for every thousand feet of timber cut on the land pending a settlement. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant failed to pay either the installments or the stumpage, and that he has been unable to cut any timber, and that the defendant has since execution of the contract, it is also the request of the plaintiff that the defendant be made to pay the costs and disbursements incurred in bringing the action.

McNamara Not Allowed To See Union Men Parade In Los Angeles—Mayor Feared Riots—Seattle Celebrates

(Special To The Evening News.)
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4.—Much disappointment was felt here in labor circles today because Mayor Alexander refused permission for the labor parade to go down Temple street in order that the McNamara in the fall could see the 25,000 union men march by. The mayor refused the permit on the ground that a riot might result if the men were allowed to pass that street. In the afternoon a big barbecue was held.

LOCAL NEWS.

With several hundred dollars of easy money in his pocket, "M. D. Mitchell," who successfully fleeced a number of Roseburg's populace last week, and later made his "get-away" under peculiar circumstances, has arrived in Portland, according to information received here today. That he was closely watched on his journey is the assertion of certain Roseburg men, who claim that he was escorted to Portland by a man selected for that purpose. Investigation following his departure has revealed the fact that his name was not Mitchell, neither was he married to the woman whom he pointed out as his wife. It is further asserted that the fellow is not a native of this state, as some would believe, but on the contrary, a transient fellow whose whereabouts would be gladly welcomed by the Eastern officers. Letters delivered at the above residence by the crook and his "wife" during their stay in Roseburg do not seem to bear the name of Mitchell, neither do letters addressed to that alleged "spouse" correspond with those sent to the pretended husband. As a matter of fact, the couple are out for the coin, and in Roseburg they found a bunch most suited to their liking.

Buy The Free for $40

Guaranteed and Insured Sewing Machine for five years

The Roseburg price of the Free Sewing Machine is $40. In Portland it sells for $65, and in other Oregon towns at $50.

The Free sewing machine is absolutely the most perfect machine on the market. It costs the dealer more than many other machines that sell for $48 and even more. And it is worth twice the sum asked for it here, compared to most competing sewing machines.

Besides its many mechanical features, the Free Sewing Machine carries with it for the same price an insurance policy for five years, and a guarantee for every part. These are made by the manufacturers. So if your machine burns in your house you get a new sewing machine, by presenting your policy.

We personally believe in the Free machine, and we like it better than any other sewing machine we have ever sold. It has always given satisfaction, and to permit you to have a trial, if it does not prove satisfactory after thirty days, your money will be refunded.
