The male—he has a load to pull,
And so his man.
He's happiest when he is full,
And so his man.
Like man he holds a patient pose,
And when his work's done will rejoice.
The male—he likes to hear his voice
And so does man.

In President Taft's itinerary to the Pacific coast he visits but two places in all of Oregon, larger in area than the states of New York and Pennsylvania combined, these two places being Portland and Salem; while in our neighboring state of Washington—not so large as Oregon, he visits, and addresses and will be entertained at fourteen places, as follows: Spokane, Lind, Ellensburg, Tacoma, Bellingham, Mount Vernon, Everett, Seattle, Olympia, Centralia, Castle Rock, Kelso, Klama, Vancouver, Eastern Oregon itself as large as New York state is entirely ignored and the same of Southern Oregon. Have we lost all influence at Washington City? Where are our public men? Are there none to be counted? Our neighboring state has been spoken for by her representatives.

Abraham Teachout, wealthy manufacturer, of Cleveland, Ohio, who has just celebrated his 94th birthday but disdains not to put in six days of work each week, says a man who is in good health at 60 commits a grievous wrong if he retires from active work. "A man of 60 who has good health is in his prime," said Mr. Teachout today. "In such eventual times such a man would be dodging responsibility if he refused to give the world benefit of his experience and conclusions. A man of 60 can tackle propositions that a young man dare not attempt. It would be the greatest folly for a man of that age, if he was vigorous to settle down to a life of inglorious ease."

SECTING RIGHT OF WAY.

Agents of Two Roads From Roseburg To Coos Bay.

Marshfield Times, Sept. 8: Nothing particularly new has developed in the railroad situation locally today. There were a number of stories afloat nevertheless.

Peter Longie, who has been out getting right-of-way for the Coos Bay and Boise stated today that they had secured promises or options of about eighty per cent of the right-of-way between the river and the Douglas county line. All of the big landholders have given right-of-way, the last to promise it being Manager Armstrong of the Menasha Woodens company. Mr. Armstrong has just returned to the Bay and could not be seen before. He has promised right-of-way both over the Southern Oregon and Menasha Woodens holdings.

Engineer Aston, of the Coos Bay and Eastern Electric says they are making good progress with their surveys. They did not present their application to the county commissioners this week for a franchise over the Middle Fork road, as was expected, owing to the survey not having progressed sufficiently. They will make application later. E. W. Lewis, Spokane, Ind, Ellensburg, Tacoma, Bellingham, Mount Vernon, Everett, Seattle, Olympia, Centralia, Castle Rock, Kelso, Klama, Vancouver, Eastern Oregon itself as large as New York state is entirely ignored and the same of Southern Oregon.

There is nothing new in the Southern Pacific project of the Terminal Railway matter today, so far as could be ascertained. However, it is understood that the holders of the Terminal Railway franchise refused to turn over to the Southern Pacific that franchise or any part of it as was desired by Messrs. Mills and Mignus at the conference. They pledged that the Southern Pacific would be given the same service at the same proportionate cost over the terminals as any other railway that might desire to use it, guaranteeing equal terms to all.

CHURCH PASSES RESOLUTIONS.

Postoffice Department Asked To Shorten Hours on Sunday.

To the postmaster, of Roseburg: The congregation assembled at the Presbyterian church on last Sunday, being informed that you and your assistants are kept on duty from twelve to thirteen hours a day during the week and for five hours on Sundays, voted to respectfully request you, as patrons of your office, that you recommend to the department at Washington, that you be relieved from distributing mail to the boxes on Sundays and from spending the general delivery window and carriers' window; but it is understood that this plan shall not interfere with the special delivery system on Sundays, and that any person may have important mail delivered to him between 9 and 10 o'clock Sunday morning, provided he so request you in writing before the regular closing time of Saturday evening.

We also suggest that you recommend the appointment of another clerk to assist your over-worked force.

Signed in behalf of the above congregation.

County Judge Wonaocott received a letter yesterday to the effect that the name of the Oregon Reform School had been changed to the Oregon Training School.

Mrs. Nancy Whitsette, of Cottage Grove, who has been spending the past few days in Roseburg with friends, left for Wilbur this morning to spend a day or two with relatives.

A. P. Flennor, an inmate of the Oregon Soldiers' Home, left for points in California this morning where he will enter the National home for veterans. Mr. Flennor has spent about a year in the local Home and is well known.

Edward Billings, a local Southern Pacific passenger conductor, and family left for Spokane, Wash., this morning in response to a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Billings' brother-in-law, G. H. Dietrich. The message gave no details of the death, other than he was accidentally killed.

Attorney George Neuner has returned from the Days Creek vicinity where he delivered a couple of addresses relative to the laws regulating the issuance of bonds for irrigation purposes. The talks were greatly appreciated. Mr. Neuner spoke at both Canyonville and Days Creek and was greeted by large crowds.

Ivan Ellmaker, the Yoncalla lad, who recently fled the city jail following his incarceration for a minor offense, was taken to the state training school, at Salem this morning by Deputy Sheriff Wooster. The lad was questioned by County Judge Wonaocott at some length last evening relative to his future aspirations, and in response, he said he desired to become a publisher. Ellmaker is a bright appearing boy of about fifteen years of age, and will probably cause the authorities of the training school little trouble.

William Wise, reporter on the New York Post, Mrs. Dodge, of Pennsylvania, and Miss A. Cook, of Chicago, left for their respective homes this morning after a four months' sojourn in the vicinity of Hoaglin. The party came to Oregon in June in company with H. R. McMillan, of the Standard-Dayton Automobile Co., of Dayton, Ohio, and have since spent most of their time at the home of the latter's father, William McMillan, of Hoaglin. During his stay in Douglas county Mr. Wise has written a number of interesting articles, all of which have been sold to Eastern newspaper syndicates and published in the great dailies of New York and Chicago. H. R. McMillan, who accompanied them here, leaves for Mexico in a few days where he will spend some time before returning to Dayton.

Keeping Warm

We again call your attention to our line of

Heating Stoves

Especially to the Cole Coal Burners. They have several original and patented features that make them the greatest coal heaters ever offered the public. Not only do they utilize the coke, but burn the gasses that in other stoves pass up the chimney with the smoke, causing a loss of at least a half of your fuel.

You can save the cost of a stove each winter in saving of fuel alone.

Call and get one of the manufacturer's folders explaining in detail construction and operation.
