Boston Minister Faces Cell in County Jail.

INSANITY PROSPECTIVE DEFENSE

Investigation Reveals That Murdered Girl Was Soon to Become a Mother—Police Predict a Conviction.

(Special to The Evening News.) BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 21.—Haggard and his nerve gone. Rev. Clarence Virgil Richeson today faces a cell in the county jail apparently aware of the terrible consequences of the crime of which he is accused of committing. The police claim that the minister desired to rid himself of Avila Linnell that he might marry another. Investigation today revealed the fact that the girl was soon to become a mother. It is said here today that a plea of insanity will be trumped up by friends of the minister in the event he is proven guilty of the crime charged. Friends of the accused already assert that he has shown symptoms of insanity for several months past. Rev. Richeson resigned his position as pastor this morning and the same was later accepted by members of the church board.

The Minister's Capture. For several days the police inquiry made little progress relative to ascertaining the cause of Miss Linnell's death, but finally it was learned that Richeson had bought cyanide of potassium at the drug store in Newton. Such discovery led the officers to prolong their investigation. Satisfied that Richeson was guilty of the crime, a dozen officers, headed by Superintendent Watts, remained outside the fashionable home of Grant Edmunds, in Brookline, awaiting the coming or going of the clergyman. Frequent pulls at the door-bells, rappings and shouts failed to bring any response from those within the house, and the police, who were without a warrant, were unwilling to make a forcible entrance. Mr. Edmunds is the father of Miss Linnell, and for whose marriage to Mr. Richeson, on October 21, cards had been issued. These invitations were recalled today.

Druggist Faces Suspect. The Edmunds family, however, retain faith in Mr. Richeson and the only announcement in connection with the withdrawals of the cards was that the marriage had been postponed. Even when faced by William Hahn, the Newton druggist, who declares that Richeson had purchased cyanide of potassium from him, a week ago Tuesday—the minister was apparently unperturbed.

Hahn, who has known Richeson for several years, told how Richeson walked into his store, Tuesday evening, October 10, and said: "I've a dog at home that is creating a disturbance. She will be a nuisance unless I can kill her soon." Hahn said that he responded to Richeson, "I never knew you had a dog," and that Richeson replied that he had kept it in his room. Inquiry by the police where Mr. Richeson roomed developed the presence only of a male dog owned by the landlord, who said Richeson had never owned a dog during the eight months he had lodged there. Hahn said further that he suggested chloroform to Mr. Richeson, but the minister wanted "something that will work quick." Cyanide of potassium was mentioned as acting instantly, and the druggist said he gave Richeson enough to kill three dogs, but the minister asked for more and the preparation finally amounted to enough to poison ten men.

Prisoner Undisturbed. In a statement regarding Richeson's arrest, Superintendent Watts

Aviator Fowler Starts On Transcontinental Flight—Passes Ontario At 11:05 at an Altitude of 2,500 Feet.

(Special to The Evening News.) PEKIN, Oct. 21.—The strictest censorship of all revolutionary news was established today by the imperial government. Code dispatches received here today from Shanghai declare that the rebels near Hankow suffered defeat at the hands of Admiral Sah's fleet on the Yangtze river. Two thousand men were reported killed, and it is further intimated that the cruiser which joined the revolution has been re-captured. Pekin dispatches say that practically the whole imperial army is being mobilized near Sing Yang Chow. It is believed when the men are assembled, one grand rally will be made in an attempt to win a victory and thus end the revolution. In the event of failure desertions to the rebels will follow.

Miss Edmunds burst into tears when he bade her goodbye and threw her arms about him. He comforted her, saying, "Don't cry, dear; don't cry. Everything will be all right."

According to some friends of Miss Linnell, at the Y. W. C. A. home here, she had dinner in her apartment with a man Sunday before her death. The police are working on the theory that a paper with the poison was handed to her at the time, but they have not determined that her companion at dinner was the clergyman.

President William H. Taft Invades Insurgent Districts of South Dakota—Rebels in Control of the Valley.

(Special to The Evening News.) OROVILLE, Cal., Oct. 21.—Inez Brooks, aged 15 years, and Mrs. Lillah Mullings, aged 49 years, are dead and William Mullings, the latter's 18-year-old son, is suffering from the effects of a bullet wound in the left leg, following a murderous attack by Edward Williams last night. Williams is a half-breed Indian, and resided near the Mullings' home. Dr. Mullings, husband of the murdered woman, was attracted by the shots, and upon reaching the scene whipped out a revolver and fired at Williams. The bullet struck the half-breed in the chest and he is probably fatally wounded. Following the shooting Williams was brought to the county jail in order that he might be protected from lynching. The murder occurred when Inez Brooks, one of the slain, scorned Williams' attentions and took refuge in the Mullings home. Williams lived in Cascade, a small mining town, prior to coming to Oroville. The crime was committed in the kitchen of the Mullings home, and was witnessed by Dr. Mullings, who stood near by.

Controlled By Rebels. PEKIN, Oct. 21.—Consternation prevails in official circles today as the result of a report that Admiral Sah's flagship was sunk by the rebels, and that the commander was captured during a naval battle near Hankow. Reports received here today indicate that the entire valley of Hankow is practically controlled by the rebels. Foreign warships are being rushed to Shanghai to relieve the aliens in the event they are attacked.

Portland Team Relaxes Interest and Allows San Francisco to Win Yesterday's Game—Outfielders Work Good.

(Special to The Evening News.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 21.—The almost continual rains of the past few days have played havoc with the local baseball field, and as a result, today's game was called off this morning. Although enjoying a good rest, the members of the opposing teams are anxious for fair weather that they may conclude the world's championship series. Owing to the time that has elapsed since the last game, it is probable that Mathewson, New York's star twirler, will occupy the box for the "Giants" in the next game.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Portland, unafraid with the pennant already clinched, took things easy out at Recreation Park yesterday. Or, rather Speck Harkness, pitcher for the Beavers, let down and permitted the Seals to win after their own fashion. The score was 12 to 4 when the San Franciscans had finished their work.

Some times there were plenty of hits back of the runs that were made and then again there were not. Harkness established one record when three runs were scored with but a single hit, a two-bagger, to account for all of the tallies. The ex-Cleveland finger had as little on the ball as he ever showed and it was probably as much from a lack of caring what happened as for any other reason.

Benjamin Clothes. This is overcoat wear here. These nights and mornings are very suggestive of overcoats. You need one and why not receive the full season's pleasure and satisfaction, warmth and comfort. The convertible military collar, long length rain proof coats are just the thing—they are made of rough tweeds, chevrons and cashmires—materials that will give an abundance of wear. The color effect are beautiful—rich browns and tans prevail, also showing a few of those new plum color effects. A new coat this season that is meeting with much favor is the Raglan shoulder—made of materials that look heavy, but are very light and soft, very comfortable and have snap and style.
