LOCAL NEWS.

J. H. Booth and wife left for Portland this afternoon where they will spend a few days visiting with friends.

Guenn Maddix, who has been employed in Portland for some time past returned here this morning. He will probably remain in Roseburg permanently.

Mrs. Ray Wright and children arrived here yesterday from Grants Pass to join their husband and father who is employed by the Southern Pacific Company.

Perfection in milling, the best of wheat, most closely graded, are some of the things that make SNOW DRIFT the best hard wheat flour on the Western market. Sold only by the Rochdale.

J. A. and H. P. Rice, of Myrtle Creek, today filed a suit in the Justice court against David Cole and Maud L. Cole, in which the plaintiffs seek to recover the sum of $168.32, alleged to be due for merchandise sold to the defendants by the plaintiffs. In a second cause of action the plaintiffs seek to recover the sum of $19, covering goods and merchandise sold to the defendants by Phillip Butcher. Attorney Geo. Neuner represents the plaintiffs.

AN EVENING IN INDIA.

Miss Eva M. Clarke, a native of India, will appear in costume of the high caste lady of India and relate the story of her people as only can be told by a native of this misunderstood country. No one should fall to hear this remarkable story. At the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, October 31. Admission free. A silver offering will be taken. 631

TRITE SAYINGS.

The recruiting officer for the Circolo of the Club likes to hear a man announce in October that probably he'll cut the stuff next New Year's.

The rolling stone may gather no moss, but it takes on a dandy polish.

If the race began at the six-furlong pole, the quarter-horse would cop all the kale.

Better a big bump after a hard try than a puny flop after a weak effort.

The lady of fortune needs a lot of wooing, but when she does say, "yes" it goes.

The world is too busy to coax us to behave, but it'll knock any time to hand us a belt when we don't.

There's a way out, if you have to carry the ash with you.

It's a spill for bitterness between the man who never offers an apology.

IRA A. PILKINGTON

ry and the man who never accepts one.

Some of us who flatter ourselves that we're proud are merely perky.

Consider how bad things looked just a year ago that you think of with a grin today.

After they get you into a corner they've got to drive you into the cage.

Every win-out leaves a scar, but the joy of getting back is the salve.

It's just as reasonable to expect a hungry man to listen to homilies as it would be to expect a trapped rat to sing.

There's no discredit in being broke, nor is there any nutriment in advertising it.

Maybe you'll have noticed how all hands just love to sink the harpoon into the good loser.

Trouble never really enjoys it unless we show that we take it to heart.

The most inveterate toucher we ever knew wouldn't stand for one himself when he was there with the change in gobs.

The wheel of fortune may not be a brace game, but it's mighty whimsical in choosing the winners.

Take a frequent peek at your hook—they may have grabbed your bait. Clarence Cullen.

GUMPTION ON THE FARM.

Paint the ladders and store them away in the barn.

Thresh the grain out before the rats and mice do it for you.

With hay at twenty dollars a ton who would not be a hayseed?

Don't stand too much on your dignity—you might slip and fall.

It is easy for a little rip in the horse blanket to get larger. Start for needle and thread the minute you see such a rent.

As the end of the year approaches let us be up and doing all the outdoor work that has been put off, lest winter catch us unprepared.

Selling the farm and moving into town to join the store-bux club is a good deal like trading off the best cow for a yellow dog. Don't do it, brother, as long as you can plow a straight furrow.

If you had to stack any hay out this year, look at the tops before winter sets in. They sometimes settle badly, so that the storms are likely to injure the hay very much. If this is the case with yours, top them out again. Thick, fine grass is the very best for this purpose. Tread it down well.

Never set a fried egg, with the expectation of hatching a fried chicken. In excessively hot weather place canvases over the potato patch in order to shield the eyes of the potatoes from the blinding sun. Investigations of modern science have disclosed the fact that there is no essential connection between duck raising and quack-grass. From November Farm Journal.
