(Special to The Evening News.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.— The question of the United States intervening in the Turkish-Italian war to prevent further barbarities, has been put up to the president, following Turkey's appeal for aid. Although this appeal took the form of a practical demand in the name of humanity for the United States to step in and stop the atrocities inflicted by Italian troops on helpless citizens of Tripoil, it is believed that the state department will be slow to break into department will be slow to break into the European situation until the pow directly interested in the war take action in the matter.

The Italian Charge d'Affairs here strenously deuies that the Italians have committed atrocities in Tripoli; and alleges that such reports are reaults of a campaign conducted by the Turks who hope to create sympathy for heir cause throughout the world.

NICE, France, Nov. 6.— Advices from Rome indicate that Italy would be only too glad to drop Tripoll and get out of further trouble if she possibly could leave that country without tarnishing her national honor. It is known that another detachment of 20,000 troops is being severally assembled at Naples for transportation to Africa to support the Italian army which is practically bottled up at Tripoli, bottled up at Tripoli, Willis Simpson, another man awaiting disposition at the hands of the grand jury, is in the county jail secused of adultery following his opement with Mrs. Zadie Cheesbro wife of a Southern Pacific section foreman at Comstock. Simpson was a Sunday school teacher at Myrtle Creek previous to his arrest, and was quite popular in that locality. During his residence there he met Mrs. Cheestro, and a few months latter the two cloped and went to San Francisco where they were later arrested. Simpson was returned to Roueburg, and upon being given a preliminary hearing in the justice court was held to appear before the grand jury. In default of bonds he was remanded to the couiny jall. Other persons in jall charged with various crimes are Engene Ambrose, of Yoncalla, who is accused of passing a worthless check in the sum of vife of a Southern Pacific section oreman at Comstock.
