JOHNSON IS ARRESTED.

Formerly Lived At Glendale—Known In Roseburg.

Police Judge Shortall yesterday issued a warrant against W. P. Johnson, president of the W. P. Johnson Lumber and Mill Company, 901 Sixteenth avenue South, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, preferred by T. J. Marnell, 135 San Jose avenue, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Marnell alleges that on November 15, 1910, Johnson represented to him that the W. P. Johnson Lumber and Mill Company owned stock and trade at 1185 Church street, known as the branch office and yard of the W. P. Johnson Lumber and Mill Co., and that on this representation he purchased from Johnson forty shares of the capital stock of the Church-street lumber yard, and subsequently found, according to the allegations in his complaint, that the W. P. Johnson Company did not own the brach yard.

Johnson last night said that Marnell was merely endeavoring to collect by criminal process money he had invested in the company. Johnson declared that he had never represented the Church-street plant as part of the property of the Johnson Company, that, on the contrary, Marnell had known all the time that it was known as the Noe Valley Lumber Yard and was the personal property of Mrs. T. C. LeRoy. Johnson expressed himself as anxious to face the charge brought by Marnell, and said that he would be in court this morning with documents to prove that no fraud had been committed or misrepresentations made to Marnell. Johnson surrendered himself last night, and was released on bonds in the sum of $2,000.

LOCAL NEWS.

If you want cash for your eggs and other produce, see Campbell & Rutter, 279 Sheridan street. n30

County School Superintendent Thurman Chaney is quite ill at his home in this city.

A. Linebaek arrived here this afternoon after a few days spent at Riddle visiting with friends.

Never mind the weather, but go to Hill's Studio, at the corner of Lane and Pine, for your up-to-now photos. d15

Yours for satisfaction—White House Coffee. The most easily brewed, and pleasant to drink. Its quality that counts. Sold only by the Rochdale. n22

Mrs. Frank Benson, who has been spending the past few days in Roseburg visiting with friends left for Sutherlin this afternoon where she will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Waite.

Douglas County Creamery butter is the best on the market. Insist on your grocer supplying you with a home product, which is always strictly fresh and guaranteed. Two pound roll 85 cents. dswtf

W. S. Stalker, of San Diego, Cal., arrived in Roseburg last evening to spend a couple of days looking over this locality. Mr. Stalker is a dentist by profession, but on account of ill health has decided to purchase a farm.

The Australian Boys, forty-two in number, arrived here this afternoon from the south. The boys were met at the depot by a committee of business men and escorted to the Roseburg Commercial Club rooms where they were formally welcomed to Roseburg. Later they proceeded to the local ball where they witnessed an exhibition of basket ball between local teams. This evening the boys will give a concert at the Armory, and from the advance seat sale, it appears they will be greeted by a large crowd. As a musical organization, the boys have no superiors, as the program rendered on the streets following their arrival will attest.

Robert S. Lovett, head of the Harriman system, accompanied by a number of leading officials of the Southern Pacific, spent a few minutes in Roseburg this afternoon while on a tour of inspection of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon. The special train reached Roseburg shortly after noon, and the officials were immediately greeted by a number of local business men who assembled at the depot. Neither Mr. Lovett or his companions had anything to say regarding the tour, other than expressing themselves as well satisfied with the conditions prevailing in Oregon at the present time. Judge Lovett was accompanied on his visit here by William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific; E. E. Calvin, general manager; D. W. Campbell, general superintendent; L. R. Fields, superintendent; J. M. Scott, general passenger agent; Harvey E. Saunsbury, general freight agent; S. L. Burkharter, district engineer and Attorney W. D. Fenton.

Word was received here last evening to the effect that Judge Harris of Eugene, is unable to hear the case of the State vs. Jesse O. Drake, requesth Judge Calkins of Medford, accused of criminal libel, and consbas been supplemented. It is probable that Judge Calkins will arrive here this evening in order that Drake may enter his plea some time to morrow. Attorney C. S. Jackson, who represents Drake, will make strenuous effort to clear his client, and it is likely that the case will prove the most interesting of the term.
