

SOUTH DEER CREEK ITEMS.

Rev. Eaton, of Roseburg, preached the Thanksgiving sermon for the Sunday school last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Eaton is a favorite with both young and old in this neighborhood, and the school house was comfortably filled.

The three Pickens brothers have rented the Boggs ranch and are busy putting in a crop of grain. They are making good headway and a few more days of good weather will find them practically finished with the work.

At the last regular meeting of the grange the following candidates were initiated: Miss Jennie Ingram, Clarence Ingram and George Doudle. The annual election of officers was held the same evening and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, Dr. C. H. Bailey; overseer, Dick Meisner; chaplain, Will Pickens; treasurer, Geo. Daudle; secretary, Merle Casebeer; lecturer, Albert Karcher; gate keeper, Will Melton; steward, Will Karcher; cares, Mrs. O. Pickens; pomona, Mrs. Wm. Pickens; flora, Mrs. Hazel Pickens; assistant steward, Lawrence Gilliam; lady assistant steward, Miss Bertha Karcher. At the installation of officers a week from Saturday, County Deputy Barker has promised to be present and the woman's work committee has promised something especially fine in the way of a banquet.

Our road supervisor, Ed Davis, has been doing a little final work on the roads this week.

Mr. Krogel has received 1,500 prune trees and has them heeled in for the winter, intending to plant them next spring. Next year he intends extending his acreage in prunes to 35 acres.

One of the pleasantest social events in the neighborhood occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Karcher Thanksgiving night. About 35 couples assembled at their pleasant home and indulged in the light fantastic until an early hour in the morning.

Albert Krogel, who is taking a course in engineering at Corvallis, came home to be with his parents during Thanksgiving.

Billy Hatfield, who formerly resided at Melrose, and who moved to Idaho with his parents a couple of years ago, is visiting his uncle, Thos. Hatfield.

Mrs. Linebarger, who has been critically ill, is reported to be out of danger and on the road to complete recovery.

Dave Hunter is still at the Mt. Alto ranch on the North Umpqua. He is building a new barn on that ranch, but expects to be home in time to hang his stocking up Christmas eve.

Mr. Nalls, who recently rented his ranch to Mr. Spencer, of Oklahoma, is at a mineral spring in Texas, trying to regain his health.

Tom Hatfield's new home is nearly completed and he expects to move in within a month. This residence is one of the finest in the valley and is a great addition to our large number of fine homes.

Clarence Ingram has been busy hauling lumber from Embree's mill. He is building a house on his homestead near his father's ranch.

Dr. C. H. Bailey, Wm. Melton, Wm. Karcher and Ralph Karcher, all expect to take the short course at the agricultural college next month.

OREGON DAY.
Is Celebrated At The Chicago Land Show Today.

Arrangements for celebration of Oregon day at the Chicago Land show today were complete. There were numerous lectures on Oregon in the twenty thousand dollar lecture hall provided by the Union Pacific system. Chairman J. H. O'Neil appointed by Governor West, had charge of the ceremonies and this assures that the state as a whole was fairly and amply presented. Tom Richardson was speaker of the day and was ably assisted by the gentleman appointed by the Portland Commercial Club: Grover Simpson, J. W. Vera, C. C. Colt, Geo. Doffaven, H. W. Smith, G. H. Graam, Professor Chamberlain and others. This will be presented to the people of Chicago as an Oregon proposition and a state-wide celebration at which it is assured the various opportunities of the state will be fully offered.

The Umpqua Valley Fruit Union will hold a meeting in the commercial club rooms Saturday, December 2, at 1:30 p. m. Reports will be read and important matters discussed. Everybody come. swd

The ladies of St. Joseph's church will hold a sale of aprons, and Christmas goods, also cooked foods, baked chicken, cakes, pies, bread and cookies, Saturday, December 9, at Easton's grocery store. ds
