business visitors at Cottage Grove one day last week.

Mrs. Henry Witte was taken to Portland last week where she will probably undergo an operation. Her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Long, accompanied her.

Several members of the local camp of Woodmen attended a big chopper blow-out at Drain last Monday evening. The degree team from the local camp conferred the mystic rites of chooperhood upon about fifteen candidates and it is a safe bet that they were well taken care of by our worthy guardsmen.

Our boys report an exceptionally enjoyable time and that they were royally entertained and well dined by the Drain choppers, who are a live bunch and care but little for trouble and expenses when it comes to entertaining. Those attending from this place were F. L. Beard, E. P. Drew, Fred Lee, Dee Wilson, Paul Applegate, John Applegate, Chas. Stevens, James Miller, Jake Juvenal, C. E. Drew, James Ives, Dr. Mortensen, J. W. Jones, N. Crow, John Kruse, Chas. Applegate and Bert Stock. The old-time dance which was to have been staged Saturday evening, December 30, will not take place at that time, it being deemed prudent to hold the dance on New Year's night, thus affording ample time for all to enjoy themselves.

J. M. Charles, of Seattle, who has been spending the past couple of days in Roseburg visiting at the home of Dr. G. J. Bacher left for Grants Pass this morning where he will spend the holidays with friends.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. N. E. Tyroll, of Drain, spent yesterday in Roseburg attending to business matters.

T. M. Goltspie, of Peel, spent yesterday in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Mrs. W. M. Parton, who has been ill at Meray hospital for some time was able to return home this morning. She was suffering from an abscess of the foot. Dr. George E. Houck was the attending surgeon.
