

IS RECOVERING

Richeson Trial Will Commence on Jan. 18.

GIRL IS HELD UNDER BONDS

Room-Mate of Avis Linnell, the Murdered Girl, Will Appear as a Witness Against Minister—Mass Evidence.

(Special to The Evening News.) BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 23.—Recovering from attempted self-destruction, Rev. Richeson will be ready to face trial on a charge of murder on January 18.

The sole developments in the case today was the holding of Miss Lucile Zeigler, who was the room-mate of Avis Linnell at the Y. W. C. A. prior to the murder. She was held as a witness under $500 bonds. She furnished the bond and says she will be on hand to testify.

Although Richeson's counsel, W. A. Morse, after visiting his client in jail today, said he appeared weak, Dr. Howard A. Lothrop, who performed the operation said the patient was "getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances" and that unless unforeseen complications developed he would be able to attend the trial on January 18.

Richeson passed a bad night and physicians were hastily summoned early this morning. His condition improved during the day, however.

The state is preparing a mass of evidence to introduce at the trial.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. S. Cherrington, the Riddle real estate agent, arrived here this afternoon to look after business interests.

Just the thing for wifey or sweet-heart—a French Plate Triple Mirror.

W. J. Yokum and wife, of Canyonville, arrived here this afternoon to spend Christmas visiting with their son.

F. R. Brown, of Camas Valley, spent the day in Roseburg attending to various business interests.

J. W. Perkins and wife leave for Portland tonight where they will spend Christmas with relatives.

John Winniford left for points on the Calapooia river this morning.

where he will spend Christmas with his daughter.

Deputy Sheriff R. L. Whipple will spend Christmas at Drain visiting with his parents.

Miss Mabel Norton, who has been employed at Portland for some time past, returned here last evening to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. A. A. Fuller.

C. W. Hopkins, of Portland, will arrive here tomorrow to spend Christmas visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Oliver.

John Beckley, a local Southern Pacific switchman, leaves for Portland on Monday where he will enjoy a well-earned vacation.

Earl Pickens, of Eugene, will arrive here tonight to spend Christmas with relatives. Mrs. Pickens and child preceded him here yesterday.

Charles D. Bufck and wife, of Myrtle Creek, will arrive here tomorrow to spend Christmas visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely.

D. W. Hunter and wife, who reside on Deer Creek, left for Corvallis this afternoon where they will spend Christmas with their son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt, of Grants Pass, passed through Roseburg this afternoon enroute to Yoncalla where they will spend the holidays visiting at the home of the former's parents.

Miss Vera Barbre, of Springfield, arrived in Roseburg this morning to spend a few days visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Rhoda Watson, of Peel.

The Roseburg high school girls' basketball team left this afternoon for Drain where they will meet the girls' team of that city in a matched game tonight.

Oregon Hair Tonic

It Grows Hair
Accept no Substitute

For Sale By
FULLERTON-RICHARDSON
Druggists.

The trouble with most practical gifts is that they carry no expression of sentiment, without which, any article no matter how useful or valuable, is undesirable for a Christmas gift.

A piece of Furniture from our store however combines every necessary feature of sentiment, good wishes, attractive comfort and utility.

If you will only look over our stock and see the many beautiful things that a few dollars will buy, you will at once appreciate the advantage of selecting at least a part of your Christmas things from our store.

They will bring more joy and lasting pleasure to the person who receives them than anything else you can buy.

Roseburg Furniture Company

Terms if desired.

Roseburg, Oregon

AFTER SHUSTER

Reports Say He Awaits Form-Notification.

OVER $400,000 APPROPRIATED

Wars in Progress in Many Parts of China—Armistice Appears to Have Assisted Little in Reaching Settlement.

(Special to The Evening News.) ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 23.—Declaring that he received "no valid" orders of dismissal, W. Morgan Shuster, treasurer general of Persia, is still clinging to the job, according to advices received here today from Teheran.

It is said that he is waiting for formal notification from the Persian parliament before leaving. It is believed that the troubles of Shuster have only commenced and that he will eventually lose his position.

Money Is Stolen.

PEKING, Dec. 23.—Brigands today attacked the Imperialists and carried away $400,000 in bullion. The guards were killed after a hot fight and the money was carried away without difficulty. They operated under the disguise of rebels.

Conflicting Reports.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Contradictory reports are being received regarding Shuster today. Some say he has quit his former position, while others are to the effect that he is still clinging to the job.

Wars in Progress.

GAERRILLA, Dec. 23.—Warfare is being waged in many parts of China since the armistice was declared.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. S. Bonebrake, after a business visit here, left for his home at Days Creek this morning.

Leslie Lilly, of Glide, left for Corvallis this afternoon where he will spend ten days visiting with relatives.

Little Richard Studley, of Eugene, will arrive here this evening to spend Christmas visiting with Aris Rice, the little daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice.

Joseph Dow, architect and builder, plans and estimates furnished; prices reasonable. Room 3, Bell

NO PAPER MONDAY.

There will be no Daily News issued Monday (Christmas). This is one day in the year that the printers refuse to "make good" and The News is glad to give them a day of recreation and rest.

Sistera bldg. Residence phone 69-Y. 11

John Spaugb, the Looking Glass farmer, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business matters.

H. H. Stephens, of Oakland, will spend Christmas in Roseburg visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stephens.

E. M. and W. R. Morgan, both residents of Dixonville, are spending a few days in Roseburg visiting at the home of their brother, E. E. Morgan.

White House Coffee well made for your after dinner cup will complete your Christmas dinner in a most satisfactory and pleasing manner. Sold only at the Rochdale. 425

Mr. and Mrs. W. Faulkner and Miss Arrie Black will arrive here from Bend, Oregon, tomorrow to spend the holidays visiting with relatives.

The Oregon Gas and Electric Company have installed a number of gas ranges in their offices on North Jackson street, and the same can be purchased by persons contemplating the use of gas. The plant is nearly ready for operation.

J. C. Gibbs, formerly a resident of Canyonville but of late of Montana, arrived in Roseburg this afternoon. He will proceed to Canyonville this evening where he will spend a week or ten days visiting with friends.

Mrs. Oscar Hanson and children arrived here this afternoon from North Dakota to join their husband and father who recently purchased a ranch in Melrose. Enroute here they spent some time visiting with friends at Spokane.

Miss Vivian Van Buren will arrive here this evening from Stockton, Cal., to spend Christmas visiting with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Van Buren recently arrive here from Portland where they have resided since leaving Roseburg.

W. W. Purdy and wife, of Portland, are expected here tomorrow to spend Christmas visiting at the home of Mrs. Purdy's parents. Mr. Purdy recently accepted the contract for subdividing the so-called John R. Sutherland ranch, north of town, and will probably commence the work early next year.

Velma Bates, while playing at her home last evening with other children closed a door on her left hand, severely mashing and severing the nail from the third finger. Dr. Sether was called and dressed the injury, which proved quite painful, and the patient will be without the use of this member of her hand for some weeks.

Caleb McGraw, who was yesterday arrested accused of the crime of cruelty to animals, appeared in Justice of the Peace Marster's court this morning, and upon entering a plea of guilty was fined in the sum of $10. He paid the amount. McGraw was arrested upon complaint of Dr. G. J. Bacher who alleged that he prodded a team of mules with a sharp spike.

Sheriff George Quine arrived here this morning from Portland with Tishby King, who is accused of the crime of lewd cohabitation. Miss King is a negro and was arrested at Portland Thursday morning upon complaint of a local Southern Pacific conductor. Her male consort, who is accused of a similar crime, was arrested here Thursday night and is being held in the county jail awaiting a preliminary hearing.

The B. R. S. Sunday school class, of the Christian church assembled last evening at the church to enjoy a few hours in a social way. The occasion proved very enjoyable. Visits were made by the class to three different stations along the route outlined and came to a happy ending by a sumptuous banquet at the church. The festivities were continued until quite a late hour and all had a good time.

A very delightful evening was enjoyed at the Maccabee hall, on Thursday night, when the members of the local lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Ladies Auxiliary, joined in installing officers for the ensuing year. W. E. Bates acted as installing officer for the trainmen, with the following well known members ushered into office: S. W. Starmer, past president; L. F. Patton, president; J. W. Fowler, vice-president; George Quille, secretary; W. E. Bates, treasurer; W. O. Gordon, son; A. T. Mac Kenzie, chap.; O. R. Garner, warden; H. J. Robinson, inner guard; B. G. Vinson, outer guard. In installing the officers of the auxiliary, Mrs. Carol Fowler acted as installing officer. Among the officers of the latter lodge are the following: Mrs. Margaret Allison, past president; Mrs. Hattie E. Gordon, president; Mrs. Clara Starmer, vice-president; Mrs. Blanch Rousa, secretary; Mrs. Kate Raymond, treasurer; Mrs. Pansy Allison, con.; Mrs. Garnet Allison, chap.; Pauline Garner, warden; Nellie Ford, I. G.; Helen Wilbanks, O. G.; Mrs. Carol Fowler, pianist. Following the installation of officers the members of the lodges and guests repaired to the banquet room where they partook of a bounteous turkey supper prepared by the ladies of the auxiliary. Later dancing and social converse were in order. The ladies of the auxiliary are renowned for the good cooking, and their recent attempt far surpassed all former occasions.

DARROW ACTIVE

Says He Has no Fear of Bribery Charge.

MANY MINERS ARE DROWNED

Western Governors Will Be Entertained at Banquet in Portland Tonight—Missionaries Return Home.

(Special to The Evening News.) LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 23.—In a lengthy article written by Attorney Clarence Darrow and published in a local weekly publication, the distinguished attorney emphatically denies the charge that he sold out the McNamara brothers to save himself from bribery prosecution. In an exclusive statement he declared he recommended that the prisoners plead guilty in order that they might be saved from death on the gallows. He denied that he entered into any negotiations with a view of saving his own name from being connected with the alleged bribery scandal.

Many Miners Are Drowned.

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 23.—Scores of miners are believed to have been drowned when the Tolly reservoir broke through the retaining wall and flooded the workings of a ditch in which two hundred men were employed. Hundreds of rescuers are at work in hope of recovering the bodies.

To Entertain Governors.

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 23.—Governors Hay, of Washington; Hawley, of Idaho, and West, of Oregon, will be honored guests, and the principal speakers at a banquet to be given here tonight by the Progressive Business Men's Association. It is expected that about 350 persons will be present. The governors will tell of their Eastern trip, and of the advertising that resulted.

More Evidence Adduced.

NEW YORK CITY, Dec. 23.—Dramatic details of the tense situation, when the late United States Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin, attempted to bribe Senator La Follette with a view of corrupting Judge Stebbeler, is the substance of an article in a current magazine issued here today. The article says that Sawyer attempted to secure his influence in bribing the Judge during the recent suits of the state against several former state treasurers and their bondsmen to collect interest on state funds they had appropriated. With the republican boss gone, it is alleged that the "ring" lost thousands of dollars.

Missionaries Arrive.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 23.—After a perilous journey from the interior of China, a number of missionaries and their families arrived here today. There are twenty children in the party.

Miss Coryell, who has been teaching school at Grants Pass, arrived here this afternoon to spend the holidays at the home of her brother, Louis Coryell.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Christian Church.

J. N. McConnell, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching 11 a. m.; C. E. 6:30; Christmas exercises 7:30 p. m. We will be pleased to have you worship with us.

Christian Science.

Corner Lane and Main streets. Services every Sunday at 11 a. m., and every Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., subject for Sunday, December 24, is "Christ Jesus". Everybody invited to attend these services and visit the reading room in same building.

Baptist Church.

W. H. Eaton, pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m.; preaching 11:30 a. m.; P. U. 6:30; Christmas eve concert 7:30 p. m. At the morning service the pastor will preach the annual Christmas sermon, theme, "The Child's Name." The Christmas eve concert at 7:30 p. m. will be given by the intermediate department of the Sunday school and the choir. All are cordially welcome.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Alexander B. Maclean, pastor. A Christmas Sunday at this church. Xmas music and Xmas sermon by the pastor. A beautiful Xmas program at night. Fine special music by the choir and the junior choir composed of 50 voices under the efficient management of Mrs. Heinline will have the major part of the exercises. Everybody welcome, but you will have to come early.

Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

K. M. Mears, pastor. Preaching by the pastor 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; morning subject, "Good News"; evening subject, "How God Loved the World". There will be special Christmas music. Sabbath school 10 a. m., W. L. Cobb, superintendent. The Christmas entertainment will be held Monday (Christmas) night. Senior league meets at 6:30 Sunday evening. Miss Fannie Cobb, leader. Mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening 7:30. You are cordially invited to all the services of the church. Come and worship with us.

Presbyterian Church.

J. E. Burkhardt, pastor. Special Christmas music will be rendered by the choir at morning and evening worship. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Duzala Bell, special representative in the Northwest for The Continent, will occupy the pulpit at this service. Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock, subject of the sermon, "Heaven's Christmas Message." The Sabbath school meets at 10 a. m.; young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.; prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock. You are cordially invited to attend all of these services. Come and bring a friend.

Saint George's Church.

Corner Main and Cass streets. The Rev'd Charles Wilson Baker, rector. The fourth Sunday in Advent; holy communion at 7:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; morning prayer at 11:00; evening prayer and Christmas Carols at 7:30.

Christmas Day.

Holy communion at 7:30 a. m.; holy communion at 10:00 a. m.; St. Stephen's Day (Tuesday), holy communion at 10:00 a. m. St. John the Evangelist's Day, (Wednesday, Saint Clement's church, Oakland. Holy communion at 10:30 a. m. The Innocent's Day (Thursday) Holy communion at 10:00 a. m.; Children's Christmas festival at 7:30 p. m.

Christmas Carol Service Sunday, Dec. 24th, 1911, 7:30 P. M.

Processional Hymn, 49, "O, Come, All Ye Faithful"; Adeste Fideles; Gloria Patri; Robinson Magnificat; Semper Nunc Dimittis; Semper Hymn, 53, "Shout the Glad Tidings"; Avision

Address.

- Carols:
- "See Amid the Winter's Snow," Goss
 - "Infant so Gentle," Gascon Carol
 - "Good King Wenceslas," English Carol
 - "Silent Night! Holy Night," Hayden
 - "Like Silver Lamps," Stegall
- Offertory Solo, "O Holy Night" Adams
- Presentation, "Praise God from Whom" Old Hundred
- Recessional Hymn, 58, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" Barnby

French Plate Mirrors—all styles and sizes. See Winnie Gaddis, the plumber. 41

DARROW IS FREE

Fredericks Says He Will Not Prosecute.

GRAND JURY HAS ADJOURNED

McNamara Investigation To Be Resumed Early In January—Money Desired to Continue Wars.

(Special to The Evening News.) LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 23.—District Attorney Fredericks this afternoon gave out the absolute assurance that Attorney Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for the McNamara brothers, will not be prosecuted on a charge of bribery.

"There is a great difference between a case against a man and that of merely suspecting his procedure," said Fredericks this afternoon when interviewed by newspaper men. "If we could connect Darrow with the bribery charges we would certainly prosecute him as we would any other man charged with such an offense."

Grand Jury Adjourns.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 23.—The federal grand jury, which is investigating the dynamiting conspiracy involving the McNamara brothers and several "higher ups" adjourned at noon today until early in January when the investigation will be resumed.

The members of the grand jury are silent on all matters coming to their attention, and consequently, it is impossible to get a line on the evidence.

Money Is Solicited.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 23.—Determined to wage the present war to the bitter end, the Chamber deputies today asked for an appropriation of $2,500,000 to meet the expenses at Tripoli. The money will probably be appropriated by the war department.

SPECIAL XMAS DINNER

From 12 M. to 8 P. M.

TABLE D' HOTE, $1.00.

- Blue Point Oysters on the Deep Shell
Chicken Rice Tomato
Muck Turtle Amontillado
Chicken Consomme
Ripe Olives, Calif, Celery,
Young Radishes, Green Onions
Fillet of Sole Tartar Sauce
Julienne Potatoes
Calf's Brains a la Westmore
Pineapple Fritters
with Parslanau Sauce
Roast Young Turkey Chestnut Dressing, Cranberry Sauce, or Suckling Pig Dressing, Sweet Potatoes
Asparagus Tips Candied Potatoes
Crab Salad
English Plum Pudding, Golden Sauce
Cheese Crackers
Demi Tasse
Al La Carte Dinner served as usual from 12 o'clock noon until 8 o'clock.

There Aint Going to be No Leavins

Last year we cleaned up all Xmas goods after Xmas. This year we are determined there shall "be no leavins."

That's why so many are finding such

ATTRACTIVE PRESENTS

at such

ATTRACTIVE PRICES

not only in holiday goods, but also all other lines we carry.

THE LEADER

A Good Book. A High Grade Fountain Pen. A Choice Box of Stationery Ladies or Gents Travelling Set in fine Leather Case. Beautiful Hand-painted Vases. Teachers Bibles. Book of Poems. Toys. Dolls. Games. Goods the Best. Prices the Lowest.

ROSEBURG BOOK STORE