Many of the most highly advertised brands of flour on the market, they are prepared with the apparent idea that the whitest of the bread is alone desirable, hence the flour is bleached until no strength or nutrition remains. Bleaching renders the flour injurious to health. You should avoid all bleached flour. Snow Drift flour is unbleached, most wholesome and nutritious. No other quite so good. The Rochdale. d25
