Kitchen Furnishings

IT IS NOT MANY YEARS SINCE "KITCHEN FURNISHINGS" WOULD HAVE BEEN A RIDICULOUS PHRASE, FOR AT that time there were no conveniences in kitchen furnishings. But today there are cabinets, ranges and various articles that help to make a back number of the old adage "Women's work is never done." Besides, the kitchen is the heart of the home; and our health—our valuable asset—is largely dependent upon this condition. The price of such kitchen accessories is almost nothing considering the steps, time and weariness they save, so we will take real pleasure in having you inspect the "Kitchen Furnishings" in our store.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Free Methodist church will hold special watch services tomorrow evening commencing at 8 o'clock.

In a spirited road election, held in district No. 32, including that territory known as Deer Creek, the voters this afternoon defeated the proposition of voting a special road tax by a vote of 42 to 8.

The members of Rising Star Lodge No. 174, and Philletarian Lodge No. 41, I. O. O. F. will hold joint installation of officers on the evening of January 6. All members of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellow lodges are invited to attend.

H. E. McCready, for the past two years a resident of this city, has purchased the soft drink emporium conducted in this city by Robert Connor. The purchaser will take charge Monday morning. Mr. Connor expects to leave soon for Mexico.

J. O. Stemmier, a well known Marshfield man, was married in Roseburg this afternoon to Miss Katharine Gray, recently of the East. The ceremony was performed by Judge J. W. Hamilton in the presence of a few witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Stemmier leave for Coos county tomorrow where they will make their future home.

The members of Pomona Grange, comprising all of the granges of Douglas county, held their regular monthly meeting in the English hall today. In the morning routine business matters were considered, followed by a delicious dinner at noon. This afternoon the grangers are enjoying a social chat, exchanging ideas and otherwise making the best of the occasion.

T. M. Marsh, a transient tailor, was arrested by Night Officer Chambers last evening on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes from the tailor shop, conducted by James MacDougal and situated on Oak street. From the story told by MacDougal, Marsh drifted into his shop yesterday morning and upon advancing a hard luck story was treated to breakfast and dinner. Other than receiving this courtesy, the fellow was also given some repair work, with the understanding that he was to receive such remuneration as was agreeable to all concerned. Marsh labored diligently until after the supper hour, when he quietly appropriated a suit of clothes and departed. MacDougal soon discovered the loss and later reported the incident to the officers. Night Officer Chambers immediately went in pursuit of the fellow, and after an hour's diligent search found him at the Roseburg hotel. He was placed under arrest and escorted to the city jail where he was found to be wearing the missing garments. Palling to locate the discarded clothes, Marsh was compelled to remain in bed during the greater part of the day in order that the stolen garments might be placed in the hands of the officers as evidence. Upon pleading guilty this afternoon Marsh was fined $75. He accepted the alternative of 32 days in jail.

ROSEBURG OREGON

LOCAL NEWS.

W. A. Burr, the Deer Creek farmer, spent the day in Roseburg attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

The D. N. & E. Walter Company, of Portland, this morning filed a suit in the justice court against the Smith Furniture and Hardware Company, of Sutherlin, in which the plaintiffs seek to recover the sum of $25.54. The amount of the claim is said to be due for merchandise sold the defendants by the plaintiffs.

The Myrtle Creek Mail of the 22nd inst. says that the home of Albert Robinson, who lives on the North Myrtle road, was completely destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon, together with its entire contents. The fire supposedly starting from a defective flue. Mr. Robinson and family were in town, nine miles distant at the time of the fire and knew nothing of it until several hours later. The loss was fully covered by insurance.

Mrs. C. H. Olds and daughter, Florence, of Cleveland, Ohio, who have been spending the past few days in Roseburg visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wilson Baker, left for Ashland this morning where they will visit with friends.

As the banks will not be open Sunday and Monday next, it will be a good time this evening for bogus check artists to ply their trade. Every merchant should be on his guard and if possible try to catch the fellow who attempts to work any game. Find out if the check is good before you cash it. If it is bad, call an officer and nab the perpetrator at once. He will have two days to get away if you are stung, and if a few of these fellows are caught in the act it will have a tendency to put a stop to it.
