

To Our Friends And Customers

We thank you for your many favors and patronage during the past year, and hope to merit a larger share of your business during the year to come; during which time we shall strive more than ever to raise the standard of our goods and service.

We will give you the highest QUALITY and the BEST SERVICE at the lowest PRICE consistent with a small NET PROFIT for ourselves. While we must of necessity work for and get a small net return on the money our stockholders have invested, our greatest object and excuse for existence as an institution is to keep the cost of living as low as the conditions we live under will permit, and to gain and hold the confidence of the entire people for SQUARE AND HONEST dealing in every respect.

During 1912 we will continue our policy of 1911 of ENTIRE SATISFACTION TO OUR CUSTOMERS OR MONEY RETURNED.

We extend to each of you our sincere wish for a HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

NEW YEARS DAY

Is Appropriately Celebrated at The White House.

TAFT GREETED MANY VISITORS

United States Marine Band Furnishes Music For the Occasion—Yale Glee Club Feature Attraction.

(Special to The Evening News.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Mr. Commen People shook hands with Mr. and Mrs. President right in the White House today. This is the "big reception day" when all comers, no matter how they may be dressed or what their station in life, may enter the White House and be received by the Chief Executive if they will stand in line long enough.

The Yale Glee Club provided a special feature of the reception this year. They came with song and jest from the president's alma mater and they were given special consideration. A reception was arranged in their honor and the boys, in return, sang several specially composed songs, in which President Taft figured as the subject of the songs. It was at this time that President Taft and Mrs. Taft were hosts at the New Year's reception and this year Mrs. Taft's health was better than on either of the former occasions.

It was a great gala occasion with the marine band in full regalia providing music and the crowds, forming for hours before the doors were flung open at 11 o'clock. The buglers of the marine band announced the approach of the president at 11 o'clock and the big social event started with the usual military procession.

The presidential party came down the winding stairs and greeted Vice-President Sherman, who was the first to extend the wishes for the coming year—the year of the national election, marking the most important phase of the president's ambition. Then the members of the cabinet and their wives were greeted. The party walked to the blue room and formed a receiving line to meet the diplomatic corps.

First of all the diplomats came the dean of the corps, Baron Hengelmüller von Hengervar, the erect distinguished looking Ambassador from Austria Hungary. In his full regalia the Baron presented a fine appearance at the head of the line. Behind him came the personal representatives of the monarchs and rulers of the world.

PETITION IS DENIED.

Mayor Micelli Turned Down By State Tax Commission.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 30.—While no definite conclusion was reached at practically an all-day meeting of the state tax commission today, it is almost assured that one problem was solved which will mean that apportionment of public utilities will see an increased or decreased valuation as the spirit moves, while, on the other hand, the old millage basis of valuation of counties will be retained.

This means that the petition of Mayor Micelli, of Roseburg, and other citizens of that municipality is denied flatly.

If the state tax commission decides to remain by its present idea it means that the entire system of taxation under the state tax commission will be practically the same as in the past. The tax commission was created to place assessed values on public utilities.

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE

TWICE each year we give our customers an opportunity to make GREAT SAVINGS on their purchases of CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, SHOES and HATS. This has come to be the GENUINE BARGAIN EVENT of each season. To those who are unfamiliar with our methods it is due to say that this is unlike any other SALE in Roseburg. We never make use of the word "Value" which is used in their ads, to mislead the public. We quote only the price at which each article was sold the DAY BEFORE THE SALE—and which is our regular modest price—and then the reduced price, so our customers can see at a glance the exact saving. A child can purchase at this store, receiving the same consideration as the most experienced shopper.
