that followed, a striker named Mc-Padden was knocked down by Marshal Fenton. Whether Fenton's procedure in knocking the man down was justified is difficult to determine, considering that the men were greatly excited, and in a sense, were not responsible for their conduct. At any rate, the strikers allege that Fenton erred, and to satisfy their claims, he is said to have apologized.

Last night's outbreak was the first disturbance of consequence to mark the present strife between the strikers and strike-breakers and was the first time that the officers have been compelled to draw their clubs in order to restore order.

WANT TAX LEVY

ures submitted by Dr. Houck the farming interests pay less than $3,000, while the taxpayers of Roseburg and the state will liquidate the remaining $22,000.

Attorney J. A. Buchanan said there was no excuse for delaying the tax levy, inasmuch as the citizens of Roseburg and the great majority of the farmers favor the structure. The grangers have passed resolutions advocating the erection of the building," said Mr. Buchanan, "consequently, the county court should levy the tax as requested."

Attorney C. S. Jackson was of the opinion that the members of the club and citizens of Roseburg should prepare to meet the objection of the court—which, in brief, is to the effect that the additional levy will work a hardship on the taxpayers. Mr. Jackson declared the court had as much right to levy the armory tax as they did to levy a tax for the erection of three bridges. In fact, Mr. Jackson said there was considerable opposition to the erection of three bridges in one year and that one of the contemplated structures "in erecting three bridges in one season the court will work a hardship on the taxpayers," said Mr. Jackson, "while in the event but two bridges are erected the people will be more than willing to levy a tax for armory purposes."

After a thorough discussion of the project, a committee consisting of Messrs. Dr. George E. Houck, Claud Cannon, Fred Haynes, F. H. Churchill, J. E. Burkhardt, E. L. Parrott, Binger Hermann, Joseph Micelli, O. P. Coshaw, Dexter Rice, William Cobb and S. M. Miller was appointed to confer with the members of the county court and convey an expression of the commercial club.

However, from Salem comes the report that only 1,390 tags have been mailed, while there are 6,500 registered machines in the state, as shown by the 1911 records in the secretary of state's office. Unless the owners of the remaining 5,200 automobiles can display a tag bearing black letters on a green background in the future, they are subject to arrest for not complying with the state law, as all tags bearing black letters with a yellow background are worthless after the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Heinline returned here this afternoon after a few days spent at Medford and other Southern Oregon cities.

Bliss Singleton and D. Leatherwood, the former of Roseburg and the latter of Wilbur, returned here this morning after spending several days at Portland and vicinity.

Fairfax Parrish, son of Conductor and Mrs. Fairfax Parrish, left for Corvallis this afternoon where he is attending college. He was accompanied by Bonnie Buchanan.

In yesterday's issue of The News it was stated that Charles A. Brand was married to Miss Mamie Crowley, of Portland. Such was incorrect and should have read that he married Miss Crowley, who is a stockholder in the Overland Orchard Tracts.

At an informal meeting of several members of the city council this afternoon, it was decided that hereafter neither the strikers or strike-breakers will be allowed to congregate on the Mosher street crossing or on any other street in the city. City Attorney Elbert Hermann informed the delegation of strikers, who chanced to be present, that they had committed the last act of violence, and that future outbreaks will not be tolerated by the city. Sections of the state statutes were read, substantiating in every particular the contention of the city attorney who claims that assemblages, similar to the one of last evening, are in violation of the law. During the progress of the meeting several strikers appeared and asked that they be given protection similar to that afforded the strike-breakers, inasmuch as the city is taking no part in the strike, further than maintaining order, the strikers were informed that their interests would be protected. It is the belief of Mayor Micelli and the councilmen that this afternoon's meeting will result in much good, and that future demonstrations will be eliminated.

MAYOR MICELLI TALKS.

Referring to last night's "near" riot, at the corner of Mosher and Sheridan streets, Mayor Joseph Micelli this morning stated that he would take the situation in hand, and this evening would visit the scene in person and instruct the strikers and strike-breakers to disperse. "In the event my order is disregarded, I will immediately notify Governor West in hope that he will assist in quelling future disturbances. I do not anticipate the unpleasantness of resorting to this procedure, however, inasmuch as the sheriff, district attorney and other county and city officials have agreed to stand 'pat'. This trouble must be abated, and the sooner the men involved become cognizant of the fact the better for all concerned. Sheriff George Quine also says the men must yield, and refrain from future disturbances of a disgraceful nature."
