Modern office filing cases at the Roseburg Book Store.

George Wilson, of Myrtle Creek, spent the afternoon in Roseburg attending to business matters.

The members of the county court are busy today auditing bills and making final settlement with road supervisors for the year 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bryan, of Grants Pass, arrived in Roseburg this afternoon to spend a few days visiting at the home of Engineer and Mrs. McConnell.

Station Agent L. B. Moore has returned from Portland where he spent a couple of days looking after business matters connected with his official duties.

Mrs. Jennie Armstrong and two sons, of North Platte, Neb., arrived in Roseburg yesterday with a view of locating here permanently. Mrs. Armstrong will probably engage in business at an early date.

Stewart Mitchell, of Canada, who has been spending the past few days in Roseburg visiting at the home of his cousin, Robert Kidd, leaves for the northern Dominion tomorrow evening.

Ben Dighton and L. Echols, both residents of Outlook, Wash., arrived here today in search of a location. They carried letters of introduction to Publicity Manager Schlosser, of the Roseburg Commercial Club.

G. F. Collins, of Minneapolis, is spending a few days in Roseburg. He says he expects to locate here at an early date, considering that the climate and other advantages appeal to him as favorable.

The case of S. B. Crouch, a local hardware dealer, vs. Joseph Endicott, is attracting the attention of a jury in Justice of the Peace Marsters' court this afternoon. Mr. Crouch is suing to recover the sum of $26, alleged to be due on account.

The case of the Central Door & Lumber Company vs. C. O. Wilde was dismissed upon motion of the attorneys for the plaintiff today. The action was filed to recover a certain sum of money alleged to be due the plaintiff for goods furnished the defendant.

H. T. McChallen, who is employed in the county clerk's office, was the first person to take advantage of the opportunity to register. According to County Clerk Lenox the registration is quite brisk, considering that several months will elapse before the books will close.

Thomas Goodwin, of Oklahoma, arrived in Roseburg last night with a view of locating here permanently. He says he will purchase several lots and will later erect a modern residence. He also says he will be the means through which five other families will be attracted to Roseburg in the spring.

Following are the arrivals at the Grand hotel today: Manley B. Strawn, Yoncalla; Glen A. Warner, E. B. Barber, C. H. Arundel, Myrtle Creek; Thos. Goodwin, Oklahoma; J. M. Hoyt, La Porte, Ia.; E. R. Clarke, Willwood, Or.; J. A. Stephens, Stephens, Or.; Chas. B. Harris, San Jose, Cal.; Frank Neal, Sissons, Cal.; Geo. Reed, Cottage Grove; R. C. Morris, Max Rothkiesel, Portland.

In one of the most exciting basketball games of the season the Roseburg high school team last night defeated a picked team by a score of 30 to 20. The game was witnessed by a large crowd and considerable enthusiasm was manifested.

F. W. Leonard, wife and daughter, of Sturgis, South Dakota, arrived in Roseburg last evening. Mr. Leonard and family were attracted to Roseburg through literature sent out by the Roseburg Commercial Club. Mr. Leonard says he expected to find the conditions exaggerated, and was quite surprised to find them even better than represented.

District Attorney Geo. M. Brown received a long distance telephone call from Marshfield this afternoon to the effect that Deputy District Attorney Liljeqvist came near meeting death while hunting on the Coquille river this morning. It appears that Mr. Liljeqvist and a man named Thompson were hunting when the engine of the gasoline launch which they occupied refused to work. Unable to control the launch it soon drifted into swift water and capsized. The men were thrown into the water and handicapped by heavy wearing apparel, met considerable difficulty in reaching shore. In fact, the message received here this afternoon was to the effect that both men showed evidence of a thrilling experience, and were only saved through their ability as swimmers.

BACK TO PEN
Frank Kennedy Couldn't Stand Freedom.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 2.—Seven months of freedom proved too much for Frank Kennedy, paroled man, who was returned to the penitentiary today for violating the confidence reposed in him by this administration. Kennedy, when paroled, was given work at the White House restaurant here. The proprietors found he had been engaged in systematic theft, through "knocking down" on the money placed in his hands by customers. He was sent to prison February 22, 1908, from Umatilla county on a burglary charge.

Newly Married Couple Make Good Their Escape.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 2.—As a newly married couple came down the elevator in the Prefontaine building, fresh from the matrimonial mill in Judge George's court today, the irate father of the bridegroom came up in the car on the other side, hoping against hope that he might be in time to stop the ceremony.

The contracting parties were Philip O. Ely, a printer, and Wesale Ferrier, daughter of Albert B. Ferrier, of the Waldorf Apartments. Ely gave his age as 21 and Miss Ferrier as 19. The two rushed into Judge George's court and asked if there was someone there that could marry them quickly. The ceremony gone through with, the couple left the building in haste.
