Oliver Howard Lystul and Miss Elizabeth Spiker, both residents of Glendale, were quietly married at Eugene on December 23. Rev. Rogers, of that city, officiating. The happy couple will make their future home at Glendale where the groom has a host of close friends. He is a farmer by occupation.

The members of the Roseburg school board met at the offices of School Clerk George Neuner last evening, at which time numerous matters of importance came up for consideration. Joseph W. Dow, a local architect, was awarded the contract of preparing plans and specifications for the new school house, which will be two stories in height and will contain in the neighborhood of ten rooms. He will also have general supervision over the work, which will be carried out according to the plans and specifications of the architect. Another matter considered was that of conferring with A. J. Bellows, who has promised to give the school district five acres of land in the event a high school building is built thereon within three years. A committee of the school board will probably call upon Mr. Bellows tomorrow, at which time a contract will be entered into by the parties concerned. In conclusion the board instructed School Clerk Neuner to advertise for the sale of $10,000 of the bonds recently voted by the taxpayers of the district.
