According to information received at the local headquarters of the Federation of Southern Pacific Shoppers, a strike vote is now in progress on a number of the Eastern lines, which in a measure, are affiliated with the Harriman systems. It is predicted that all votes will be cast within two weeks, at which time the result will be made public. In the event of a general walkout the railroads will probably operate with great difficulty.

Well remembering the circumstances attendant to the recent stage robbery, in which he was relieved of considerable money, C. E. Ricker this morning decided to keep the telltale five dollar gold piece as a souvenir of the occasion. Accordingly he had engraved upon the coin the following: "C. E. Ricker, hands up, November 25, 1911." The coin in question was peculiarly marked and was the means through which the identity of the robbers was established.

After spending several months at Pittsburg and other cities, John White and wife returned here this morning. Mr. White predicts a prosperous year, based upon the statements of Eastern capitalists who are close in touch with the financial condition of the country. Mr. White is heavily interested in Douglas county real estate, and is at present promoting an irrigation ditch in the vicinity of Canyonville. Associated with Mr. White in the project, are a number of Eastern capitalists who
