LOCAL NEWS.

D. B. Bunnell, a well known Southern Pacific engineer, this morning purchased a house and lot, formerly owned by Charles Brickford and situated on Jackson street. The sale was consummated through the Bond & Bradley Real Estate Company.
The grand jury will adjourn late this evening after a week's session. Although considered private, it is known there will be several sealed indictments returned at the time of filing their report. Bench warrants will be issued upon those indictments and the indicted will be brought to trial during the next term of the circuit court.
Mrs. R. L. Gile entertained with a thimble party at her home this afternoon, at the corner of Lane and Stephens streets. Miss Mary McKib, Mabel Clements and Myrtle Purvance assisted in serving the delightful refreshments. Those present were Mesdames H. Richardson, Charles Hamilton, E. Herman, James Hamilton, George E. Houck, A. A. Wilder, B. W. Strong, A. S. Huey, S. H. Morse, Ed. Pengra, O. Olsson, Charles Wharton, S. E. Sanford, J. P. Barker, Mrs. East, Jas. Sawyers, I. B. Riddle, B. W. Bates, A. C. Masters, J. H. Booth, F. H. Churchill, W. C. Harding, Wm. Bell, H. H. Stapleton, J. W. Campbell, O. P. Coshow, G. J. Baehner, M. Miller, J. W. Groves, G. V. Wimberly, L. Kohlhaugen, W. H. Fligner, F. Clements, G. G. Goodman and Miss Vell Barker.

COUNTY COURT ORDERS.

In the matter of the resignation of Harry Frazer, as constable of Gardiner, same accepted, and W. H. Sertus is appointed to fill the vacancy.
In the matter of C. H. Van De Vold for a gateway in road district No. 15, same is continued.
In the matter of the petition of William Wise and others, for a county road in districts Nos. 29 and 21, same denied.

FINAL REPORT.

We, the grand jury of the November, 1911, term of the above entitled court, in this our report, say:
That we have inquired into the commission of all crimes within the jurisdiction of this court so far as the same have come to our knowledge, and have returned into court a number of true bills; that we have not completed the inquiry into the alleged commission of all crimes called to our attention; therefore, we suggest to your honor that we be permitted to take a recess until Monday, the 12th day of February, 1912.
In filing their report the grand jury returned several indictments, none of which are made public as yet. Bench warrants will be served on the indicted, and the indicted will appear during the next term of the circuit court.

District Attorney George M. Brown leaves for Portland tomorrow where he will represent Douglas county in an action pending in the federal court. The case is the outcome of an injunction filed against the county court enjoining Douglas county from levying a special tax on lands at present held by the Southern Oregon Company. The tracts involved are a part of the railroad land grant, and are at present under litigation.
