BIBLICAL MISQUOTATIONS.

"Solomon says riches have wings." You've heard that often, no doubt but, as a matter of fact, Solomon never said anything of the kind. This is what he did say: "For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven." It's in Proverbs 23-5. There are many others misquoted; even the Master himself misquoted the Mosaic law.

"Ye have heard that it hath been said, an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; but I say unto you, that you resist not evil." Matthew 5:38. This is the basis for the quotation: "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth." Leviticus 24:20 gives the law: "Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again."

In Proverbs 23:31-32 is another well known quotation: "Look not on the wine while it is red," which reads as follows: "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it shall bite like a serpent and sting like an adder."

"Wise is his own conceit" is another one often heard. Who knows how it is used? Here it is: "Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit." Proverbs 26:6. And again in the same chapter, 12th verse, "Blasphemy shows a man wise in his own conceit; there is more hope of a fool than of him." And the 16th verse: "The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason."

Well the High-Jinks and the reception to the LaGrande visitors are over and we can settle down to hard work again. It was a big week for Roseburg.

Senator Cummins of Iowa has announced that he is a candidate for the presidency on the Republican ticket. When will the Colonel make his debut.

POEM FOR TODAY.

No Snows in Winter.
The sky is gray as gray may be;
There is no bird upon the bough;
There is no leaf on vine or tree.

In the Neponset marshes now
Willow stems, rosy in the wind,
Shiver with hidden sense of snow.

Lo, too, 'tis winter in my mind—
No light winged fancy comes and stays—
A season churlish and unkind!

Slow creep the hours; slow creep the days.
The black ink crusts upon the pen,
Wait till the bluebirds and the jays
And golden orioles come again!
—Thomas Halley Aldrich.

LAUGHING GAS.

Raising the Boys.
In the days when nearly everybody was on the farm pretty nearly every boy was raised with a hoe, an ax and saw at the woodpile, a carry-cum in the barn, a pull for daylight journey to the well, and, about once a year, if times were good, a ticket to the circus at the nearest town. Nowadays we raise 'em with automobiles, yachts, flying machines, bicycles (on the scale down) and the theatre parties once a week, with high-priced supper afterward, orchestras making big music and all that.—New York Press.

A Genius Who Works.
Robert W. Chambers, the novelist, was called a genius the other day at the Century Club in New York.
But Mr. Chambers, with his wonted, charming modesty, denied that he was a genius.
"Believe, instead," he added, "we accept the definition that genius is nine per cent inspiration and 91 per cent perspiration."—Washington Star.

LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Hahn, of near Dixonville, was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Mason, of Ashland visited R. J. Jones, of this city, today.

A motion was filed in the circuit court yesterday asking for the dismissal of the divorce action of Laura Hodley vs. D. C. Bostly.

District Attorney George M. Brown left for Portland today where he will appear in the federal court on January 22 and argue a motion upholding Douglas and Cass counties in an attempt to avoid being made defendants in an application recently filed by the government against the Southern Oregon Company.

While attention to his duties about the Douglas National Bank building yesterday afternoon, some unknown person or persons entered the rear hall and appropriated numerous articles from the coat of Edward Singleton, the janitor. Among the articles taken by the thief is a certificate of deposit for $100, made payable to Mr. Singleton and indorsed by the Douglas National Bank.

She Wouldn't Aviate.
"Well, Aunt Emma, when are you coming for a trip in my aeroplane?"
"My dear boy, I'd no more think of doing that than I'd think of dying."—Punch.

LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton are spending a few days at Portland visiting with friends.

H. Anderson and wife, of Olalla, spent the day in Roseburg visiting with friends.

Mrs. J. L. Callaway, who has been spending a few days at Portland is expected home this evening.

Israel Ketch, a local timber cruiser, is spending a few days at Portland attending to business matters.

Al Dear, of Oakland, spent the day in Roseburg visiting with friends and looking after business matters.

Mrs. Howard Hass left for Cottage Grove this morning where she will spend a few days visiting with her parents.

Mrs. W. J. LaDour and child left for their home at Portland this morning after a few days spent in Roseburg visiting at the home of the former's father, W. B. Hammitte.

Robert Whitaker, until recently in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, went to Portland last night to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Nola Lloyd, wife of a clerk at the Roseburg hotel, was admitted to Mercy hospital yesterday where she will probably undergo an operation.

Eighth grade examinations were held in all sections of the county on January 18 and 19. The attendance was excellent, according to Supervisor John Korman who is assisting in grading the papers.

Claude Eiddle, of Canyonville, underwent an operation at Mercy hospital yesterday. The child is said to be much improved this morning and the attending physician anticipates a complete recovery.

T. R. Sheridan, of the Douglas National Bank, who spent some time at San Francisco and other southern cities is now spending a few days at Marshfield and vicinity. He will probably arrive home in a few days.

Mrs. Lizzie Morse and Miss Lucinda Morse, who have been visiting with their relatives, R. T. Ashworth and family, departed on the morning train for their home in Berkeley, Cal. Mr. Ashworth accompanied them as far as Medford.

A miner who recently came to Roseburg from Cow Creek where he has resided for many years, died at Mercy hospital last evening of tuberculosis. The funeral was held today. Nothing is known of the man in this city, other than he is single and has no relatives on the coast.

Frank B. Waite, of Sutherlin, returned home this morning after a few days spent in Roseburg. Mr. Waite has nothing to say regarding the railroad situation at Sutherlin, other than the prospects are such as to make the average citizen look ahead to a most prosperous future.

W. E. Winston, who has been attending the so-called short course at the Corvallis Agricultural College returned here this morning. He says that quite a number of Douglas county farmers are attending the college this winter and that much good will result.

R. D. Taylor and E. R. Lumbeck, of Denver, Colo., arrived in Roseburg yesterday to spend a few days looking over the country. The gentlemen represent five or six Colorado families who contemplate locating in the Umpqua Valley early in the spring. Suffice to say that the gentlemen are much pleased with their visit to this locality.

Attorney and Mrs. O. P. Coshov entertained the members of the Baptist choir, at their beautiful home on East Lane street, last evening. A feature of the evening was a bounteous dinner prepared and served by Mrs. Coshov. Following the report the party indulged in their practice, and suffice to say that the occasion was much enjoyed. Among those present were Misses Lucy Bridges, Nellie Whipple, Esther McKee, Elsie Woodruff, Jessie Pickens, and Messrs. R. L. Whipple, W. L. Gile and John.

WASH ::: DAY

Is not dreaded nearly as much if you know that you have a good machine to help lighten the work. We would like to interest you in such, we have them, running in price from $5 to $20. The latter is the very best water motor machine on the market, being both Gearless and Springless. Then we have another pattern for $15.00 that is a good motor machine, as good as you will find outside the $20.00 machine.

—THE—

NEW HOME WASHER

Is a hand machine that is very popular at $12. The Big "3", The Steel King, The Acme, and, but just come in and look them over. We are sure we can interest you, even though you have most of your washing done at a laundry. Just think of turning out a tub of clothes in the time it takes to rub one or two articles by hand, and with no more labor. Remember that the modern machine does good work and you will not find it necessary to use the board for finishing but very seldom, and then but for a waist band or a neckband.

Prove us by using a machine, you will not regret it.
