

WHAT PRESS AND PEOPLE SAY.

Preston Times, January 29, 1922:
 Mrs. Bessie Laythe Scovell, president of Minnesota's Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will make a tour through the 22nd district which includes Filmore and Hamilton counties, beginning January 29th. She is the youngest state president, pleasing in manner and winning many by her pleasant earnestness of purpose. She handles the different phases of the work in a masterly manner, always keeping in view the main object namely, the banishment of the liquor traffic. When she speaks on "Purity" we forget to criticize, thinking only of the vast need of the work, along this special line. Do not fail to hear Mrs. Scovell at the Presbyterian church, Friday, January 26.
