

INSTITUTE HELD

Presbyterian Church Scene of Most Interesting Event.

MANY ADDRESSES DELIVERED

This Evening Mrs. Eva Wheeler, the Noted Elocutionist, Will Give Recital—Intense Interest is Manifest in the Event.

The Young People's Branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held their institute at the Presbyterian church Friday, January 26, which was conducted by Mrs. Jessie Layton Scoville, National College Branch secretary, and Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, state secretary.

The morning session was called to order at 10:30 by Mrs. Wheeler, singing by the members followed with devotions. Committees were appointed. Mrs. Wheeler then took up the subject, "The Mission of the Young People's Branch," in which she told how to work with and for the young people; how to obtain the traveling library; other good literature and entertainment which would prove a benefit to young people. This matter was discussed, and means will be taken to plan for the future of the Roseburg boys and girls. The subject, "What can the Y. P. B. do in this Community?" was given to Mr. E. H. Rosenberry, who gave many good suggestions for the welfare of our boys and girls, among which were providing a reading room with plenty of good literature, arrange for entertainments, hold regular meetings and take up subjects such as, Law Enforcement, Civil Government, Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. He pointed out the evils which result from the drink habit and the card game and suggested that our boys and girls be protected from these evils by the parents and the people at large and to provide better means of enjoyment, as they are worthy of our greatest efforts; spoke on the duty and respect due to parents, a subject which our young people should have heard.

Mrs. Wheeler then took up the subject, "Co-operation with other Young People's Societies" in which she gave valuable information, in her pleasing manner how the Y. P. B. could be carried on successfully in connection with other societies in which our young people are interested. The Y. P. B. was not large enough to carry on the branch of study which is taken up by this organization.

Noontide prayer, meeting adjourned. Members of the institute and their visiting friends partook of a delicious lunch served in the basement of the church by the W. C. T. U.

The afternoon session was called to order at 1:30 singing and devotions followed. "The College Work of the Y. P. B.," by Mrs. Scoville, was listened to by a very appreciative audience. They were told of the noble work that this branch of the W. C. T. U. is doing in schools and colleges, it is the study of alcohol in a scientific manner, showing the results on the human system, told of many cases coming under her observation, statements made by eminent physicians and scientists where there has been absolute proof that alcohol is a curse to the land and the human system. Mrs. Scoville then visited the high school, where she talked to the scholars on this subject.

A paper, "The Need of the Ballot for Women," was read by Mrs. L. J. Barnes, in which was explained the many good reasons why women should vote.

"The Need of Purity Work for Young Women, and What Can We Do?" by Mrs. Wheeler, who told how influence effects even the little child. This is something that every parent should interest himself and set the right example in their conduct and friendships for their little girl to imitate. Mrs. Wheeler advised talks to our children, for parents to teach their girls how to dress properly for health and modesty, teach their girls to refuse to accept socially any young man that has not as clear a record as she would expect of her girl's companion, teach them the results of heredity, prepare them for voting as their duty is coming when they will have the ballot and when they do to vote against the divorce law. This subject was discussed and agreed that steps will be taken to help our girls along these lines.

Rev. Maclean expressed his views on the subject and paid a tribute to the W. C. T. U. for the good work they have done.

Mrs. Scoville, then spoke on the subject "The Double Standard." She told how this is tolerated throughout our civilized lands in society, in colleges—where a young man is allowed to enter college for his education and still visits the red light district and yet this would not be tolerated in a woman. This is but one of the many cases where the "Double Standard" is allowed, is her belief as it is the belief of all good citizens that there should be but "one standard." Fathers and mothers, give this your earnest thought.

The meeting was adjourned and the evening session opened at 7:30, with devotions, followed by a reading by Mrs. Wheeler, who delighted her audience with her selections and her pleasing personality. Her audience recognized her as an artist and rare ability. An address by Mrs. Scoville, entitled, "Life and Its Value" told of the drink curse that is flooding the country, the killing of thousands of men each year by the use of alcohol the thousands of women murdered annually through the drink curse, of the great ship loads of liquor shipped from our beautiful United States to India, to destroy the human beings who live in that country. She also told how this curse could be overcome by the voters. She then told of the many good things in life that are worth living for. She told the girls how to become strong and useful women by protecting domestic science, relieving their bodies of many burdens. She told the boys how to develop their bodies by use of the gymnasium and other work in the garden to help mother. Advised every boy and girl to get an education, develop his brain as well as his body.

People should live as God intended we should; live pure lives. There are three conditions that life should possess; physical, intellectual and spiritual lives and to obtain these three, vices must be banished from our lives. They are, alcohol tobacco and impurity.

This address was one of the very best that the people of Roseburg have heard and those who failed to hear Mrs. Scoville missed a rare treat. There was no charge of admission but a liberal offering was taken and many members secured for the Y. P. B. and W. C. T. U.

This closed the first institute of the Y. P. B. held in the state of Oregon, which was a success.

This evening, Mrs. Wheeler will give a recital at the Methodist church at Lane and Main streets. Admission 25 cents. Don't fail to hear her.

OUR EDENBOWER LETTER.

A "Chinook" Indicates Early Spring—Two Stores in Edgewater—Other Items of Interest.

This locality has just been visited by a "Chinook" wind, a warm, melting breeze that comes from the southwest. It originates in the "Japanese current" which hits this coast off Sitka, and follows off the Oregon and Northern California coast during the cold months of the year, imparting to our winters the mildness and general popularity. When it comes in-land it is generally followed by a warm rain, and the snow that has accumulated in the mountains melts almost with a rush and spring generally begins. There being no snow in the mountains there can be no frosts in the valley, and though the rainfall during the late storm was heavy and as a result mud is a little too plentiful, old-timers are feeling good over the late storm. They claim it was the last of winter, the end of severe frosts, and look for spring weather to begin with February of this year, as it has frequently happened before.

A delightful surprise party was given at the residence of H. M. Bullwinkle Saturday evening last by the lady members of the New Idea Club, and their husbands. Refreshments were served and the evening hours were passed in social, happy conversation and attractive games. The evening's enjoyment was prolonged to a late hour, and even then it was brought to a close with regret.

Watson Davis has workmen erecting a general merchandise store on property situated 100 yards from the railroad crossing. This is a new enterprise and shows that Edgewater is growing. The building will be 24x70 feet, and two stories in height, and will be open for business as soon as the carpenters can complete their work on it. The lower floor will be devoted to the store proper, and the upper part to either lodge purposes or a public hall.

Orchard pruners have started out in a spring wagon to make a thorough tour of the orchards of this locality, and for some time will be very busy.

S. A. Wilson, of Roseburg, was in Edgewater during the week looking after his valuable property here, and greeting his many friends.

Cows are good for the milk they yield and the butter that is made from their cream, but they are an undesirable element in a cemetery. They respect nothing and can do much damage in a short time. The other morning several got into the Masonic cemetery, and did as cows do. There has been no apratment of the damages done by them yet, but doubtless it was enough.

Mr. Kusko, who has disposed of one place, is now disposing of certain collateral belonging to another that he is desirous of selling before he leaves for his farm in Nebraska, quite a body of land located near Valentine.

Mr. Vincil was in attendance upon parties held at the county home this week. He found them improving.

Miss Gertrude East paid Edgewater a short visit in an auto this week.

Cherry and early pear trees are putting out their blossoms already but a little too precocious, but some old-timers think not this year.

The residence of T. J. Findley and the indigent home have been lighted with electricity and both have been improved thereby.

Sheriff Quinn served a citation upon Felix Mayborn, incompetent, now stopping at the indigent home, citing him to appear February 2nd before Judge Wagoner to show cause why Mrs. Hattie B. Walker, his daughter, should not be appointed guardian of the person and estate of said Felix Mayborn. Mr. Mayborn is an aged civil war veteran, and is entitled to a pension of $30 per month.

Quite a surprise was given the people yesterday when it was announced that John Botcher, the pioneer merchant of Edgewater, had disposed of his general merchandise business. Mr. Harness, of the North side grocery store is the purchaser. He has bought Mr. Botcher's stock of merchandise, has rented the store for a period of three years, and will take possession as soon as the stock on hand can be inventoried. Mr. Botcher will retain the postoffice, and will still be found at the old stand at the postoffice at all times. He says he has found an opportunity of taking a much-needed rest, and takes it, still holding to his valuable property and his charming home.

JASPER.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination for assessor of Douglas county subject to the will of the republican voters at the primary election to be held on April 19th, 1912. I have never before been a candidate for an elective office. ED. S. COCKE-REASE.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. C. Shirley returned to his home at Medford today after a couple of days spent in Roseburg visiting at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Steve Sanford.

Judge Harris yesterday overruled a demurrer filed by Lawrence O. F. Chow, in the case of S. A. Sanford, acting as trustee of the erstwhile First National Bank vs. Eugene Hanson. The action was originally brought by Mr. Sanford to collect the sum of $4,000, alleged to be due on a promissory note. Attorney Brown & Eddy, representing Mr. Hanson, filed a cross-complaint in equity, to which Mr. Sanford demurred. Attorney B. L. Eddy argued in opposition to the demurrer with the result that it was overruled by Judge Harris.

FRUIT MEETING.

The members of the Umpqua Valley Fruit Union met in annual session at the Roseburg Commercial Club rooms this afternoon and considered numerous matters of importance. The meeting was unusually well attended, and everyone present evidenced a deep interest in all questions discussed.

Important among the matters brought up for consideration was that of electing a board of directors to serve during the ensuing year. Following a dozen or more nominations the following well known Douglas county fruit growers were selected to serve in this capacity: L. D. Cooley, F. H. Churchill, C. B. Guinn, Mr. Curtis, A. L. Kitchin, H. M. Bullwinkle and A. A. Guiltiv. The board of directors will meet at the commercial club on Monday afternoon at one o'clock, at which time they will elect officers and perfect a permanent organization.

Reports of the committees read during the afternoon show the association to be in good financial condition. Other than having small balance in the treasury, the association has considerable stock on hand, including boxes, paper and other articles necessary in the proper packing of fruit.

A. L. Kitchin, the retiring president of the association, said he had investigated a report recently issued by Prof. O'Garra, of Medford, and found that first-class smudging oil could be obtained for about five cents per gallon. This oil is manufactured by the Standard Oil Company, and is generally known as a Richmond smudging product.

The local union is capitalized at $5,000, with about $3,575 paid in. The remainder of the stock will probably be sold during the spring, or at least, prior to the season's rush.

An amendment to the constitution authorizing the casting of votes by proxy was also adopted during the afternoon.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. Harding, of Glendale, was a business visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

Judge Harris returned to his home at Eugene today after a few days spent in Roseburg where he presided at an adjourned term of the circuit court.

Editor R. K. Trivett, of the Riddle Tribune, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business interests. Mr. Trivett is one of Riddle's foremost boosters and is lending his home community all possible publicity through the columns of his paper.

A Make Believe Republic.

San Marino, tiniest of republics, finds it necessary to have two presidents elected, one from the nobility and one from the people, for the term of six months only. April 1 and October 1 are the days for the installation of the presidents, which is conducted with much ceremony in the cathedral, where St. Marinius lives buried. The new rulers progress through the capital, escorted by the militia (60 strong) and the republican band, and wearing their presidential uniforms of black velvet lined with blue silk and adorned with gold lace. These are the property of the republic and the presidents have to make the best of it if they do not fit. They receive no fixed
