MIXED RELATIONS.

MIXED RELATIONS. A Family Problem a Lawyer Did Net Cars to Tackle. A lawyer received a call from a new client, a man bent upon recovering a sum of money advanced upon a note and not repaid. "Who is the debtor?" asked the law yer. "Oh, she's a relative of mine." "How nearly related?" "Very nearly." "Neut, she may be my mother-in-"" "Well, she may be my mother-in-"" "Ly be? Then you are tikely to maxing the down to copper become a molten meas at a lower tomperature to any near the debtor?"

"I've already married the daughter." "Then, of course, the defendant is your mother-in-inw."

"Perhaps you'd better hear the hole story," returned the client. whole story, returned the client. "You see, a year ago we lived togeth-er, my son and J. Across the way lived the Wildow Foster and her daughter Mnry. I married Mary, and my son married the wildow, Now perhaps you can tell me whether my son's wife is my mother-in-law or my daughter.la.law." daughter-in-law.

The lawyer did not answer. The roblem was unfamiliar. He was not ready

"I don't think I can take your case," be said. "It presents too many com-plications."

"Very well," returned the man, tak-ing his hat despondently. "But there's one thing I forgot. Since our double wedding a child has been born to each of us. What relation are those two children to each other?"

Bagpipes. Bagpipes, mentioned in Jereminh sjvill, 30. "Mine beart shall sound for Moab like pipes, like pipes for the men of Kir-heres," and elsewhere in Scrip-ture were used also by the early Egyp tians. Both Greeks and Romans knew the instrument, for a coin of Nero shows upon one side the tibla utricu taris, a bag with two reeds and nine pipes Proceptus also, who wrote about 550 A. D., asserts that Roman about 500 Å. D., asserts that Roman solidlers sometimes marched to the sound of the bagpipes, and it is not im-possible that they introduced them into the British islands. The enricest, more modern reference, to them is in an irish MS, of 1150, and an Irish Illumi nated MS of 1290 depicts a pig play ing on the burgines. The Scottish ing on the buggipes. The Scottish ingainanders were the first and only people to use the great war pipe, as the highland regiments still do

Supply on the Way. Rufus Grogan is one of the man agers of the biggest store in his town. The slogan of the store is, "We Sell Promyther." Everything

When Rufus is asked for anything the store doesn't happen to have on hand he always says. "We are out of that just now, but we have a carload coming." And "Rufus' carload" is a local joke

"Rufus," asked a customer one day, "do you know where I can get a hired rirl?

"Well," said Rufus, "we haven't any now, but we have a carload coming. Saturday Evening Post.
