THE NEWS' AGENCIES.

The rapidly increasing demand for The Evening News leads us to make another departure for the benefit of the reading public. There are always a number of people who are not regular subscribers to their home newspaper, but who are friendly toward it and buy a copy now and then. To supply this class of readers The Evening News has decided to have three agencies who will, beginning with tonight sell copies of this paper. Single copies are sold at the rate of 5 cents each.

The agencies which will handle The Evening News are:

Fullerton & Richardson, Druggists, The Perkins Building.

The Roseburg Book Company, Booksellers & Stationers, near Postoffice.

Pape's Confectionery Store, on Sheridan street, near Depot.

If you are not a regular reader of The News, buy one now and then from any one of the agencies mentioned above.

When we find nations so situated as to be obliged to subsist chiefly on one article of food we find the system liable to dreadful diseases. The Orient is an example of this, rice being the main food, and because of dreaded diseases bread, wheat and beans have been added to the rations of the sailors in the Japanese navy.
