Benjamin Clothes

Harth's Toggery

Are fully as important as the appearance from in front.

HAVE the crowd always seen you from the rear. The "Benjamin" clothed man is always in front so that a well fitting back is of supreme importance. The Dixie Model shown above is a "Benjamin" Full Box-back design. Something different from the usual run. So are all "Benjamin" clothes. They have that distinctive New York Style. The latest creations from the foremost designers in the world. Be a good dresser.

Work on the new Southern Pacific depot has been resumed with all vigor and the contractor hopes to have the building completed and in readiness for occupancy by May 3. A Portland firm has recommenced the work of wiring the structure and it is probably complete their part of the contract early next week. The roofing is being laid today and the interior work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

Eugene Register. C. P. Barnard of Roseburg, stopped yesterday on a trip to Portland to look after business interests here. He is on his way to Portland to look after a variety of automobiles for his stage lines between Roseburg and Myrtle Point and Roseburg and Marshfield. He says the running of autos is much more economical and satisfactory than horse-drawn stages. One big machine will do as much as 10 horses in a day and do it quicker and the upkeep is much less than the horses and vehicles. He will run the auto out 28 miles and back from Roseburg each day connecting with the horse stages which take passengers over the rougher mountain road on the Myrtle Point line. Other autos will go out 18 miles on the Marshfield line to connect with the horse-drawn stages. During the summer he will have eight or ten large autos in service all the time.

T. E. Roberts, a blacksmith of Springfield, Ill., accompanied by his wife have arrived in Roseburg where they contemplate making their permanent home.

The West Roseburg social circle met with Mrs. Ritzman, Tuesday afternoon. Light refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time is reported by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Mousch who have been spending some time on their farm in Southern Douglas county, arrived here this noon to spend a few days looking after business interests.

Douglas County creamery butter is the best on the market. Insist on your grocer supplying you with a home product, which is always strict in fresh and guaranteed. Two pound roll 75 cents.

The Misses Maiz and Paul Patrick entertained about 25 of their young friends Saturday evening at their home on Flint street the occasion being a Shakespear party. The time was delightfully spent in games played to the parlor and finally a delicious lunch was served to the guests. Everybody present enjoyed the affair immensely and noted that their young hostesses were adept and sure entertainers.
