

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Harry Wellington, of Portland, arrived in Roseburg this morning to spend a few days visiting with friends and relatives.

You can buy good grades of house-lining from B. W. Strong, the furniture man. Also his wall paper stock is now here for the spring.

B. L. Barry, special agent of the Oregon Merchants Mutual Insurance Company, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business interests.

The largest stock of wall paper in Roseburg is carried by B. W. Strong, the furniture man. That means a number of designs as well as quantity.

Dr. E. B. Stewart, who has been spending the past three weeks at points in California returned here this morning. He reports Mrs. Stewart well and enjoying the climate of the southern state.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, up to 12 o'clock (noon) of March 27th, 1912, for the furnishing of all labor and material, and the erection of a School Building, to be erected on the school site, block No. 19 Kinney's Improved Plat to the City of Roseburg, Oregon, according to the plans and specifications prepared by Joseph W. Dow, architect, rooms 3 and 4, Roseburg National Bank Building, Roseburg, Oregon. Plans and specifications of same can be seen at the office of School Board, Roseburg, Oregon, and also at the office of said architect, on and after March 8th, 1912.

Contractors desiring plans are required to deposit Fifteen Dollars ($15.00), made payable to Joseph W. Dow, Architect, for the privilege of retaining plans from office for nine (9) days. Said amount to be forfeited to Architect should parties fail to return plans before that time. All plans shall be returned to Architect or School Board, on or before date of letting, or bids will not be considered.

Blank forms of proposals are attached to specifications and must be followed by contractors bidding on this work, and the proposal must be addressed to George Neuner, Jr., Secretary of School Board, District No. 4, Roseburg, Oregon, and plainly marked "Proposal for School Building," and must be accompanied by a certified check in an amount equal to five (5) per cent of the bid, and made payable to George Neuner, Jr., Secretary of School Board, Roseburg, Oregon. This deposit will be returned to the bidders, whose bids are rejected, and to the successful bidder upon his entering into a contract with said School Board, in accordance with his bid and giving a satisfactory bond (surety) in the sum of the full amount of the contract, which contract and bond shall be entered into within six (6) days after the notification that his bid has been accepted.

Should the bidder fail to enter into such contract and bond, said deposit shall be forfeited to the School District.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and to waive any informality in the same, if it is deemed for the best interests of the district to do so.

Done by order of the School Board, District No. 4, Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, this 8th day of March, 1912. (Signed) GEORGE NEUNER, Jr., Secretary School Board, District No. 4.

COMMENDATION

OF PIATT

Last Number of Lyceum Course at Baptist Church Saturday Night March 23.

Cashmere, Washington, March 12, 1912.

Last night I heard Byron Piatt—the first time for years. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the splendid intellectual and moral qualities of this distinguished lecturer. The enthusiasm of the audience was marked; the people on the streets today are talking about it, and the unanimous opinion that Piatt is the strongest lecturer who has ever been heard in this city. I know that our patrons everywhere will render the same verdict which be received here.

(Signed) M. L. DAGGY, Tickets at Marsters' drug store. School children 25 cents; others 50 cents.

Often Saves Human Life

When the doctor is summoned to the farm, it is generally in an emergency case.

Often it is a matter of life or death. A member of the family has been stricken with sudden illness or an accident has occurred. Every minute's delay reduces the chances of recovery.

It is then that the Bell Telephone is "worth its weight in gold" to the anxious farmer.

It pays for itself then and there. Consult our local manager and protect your family, next time you come to town.
