THE STRAWBERRY CARNIVAL.

The annual Strawberry Carnival is assured. The action of the citizens of Roseburg at the meeting of the Commercial Club makes the Carnival a certainty. This carnival has been a feature of Roseburg for three years past and to have decided not to hold it this year would have been a backward step. Roseburg is known throughout the state as the strawberry town and should be continued to be known as such for festival purposes.
The meeting was enthusiastically attended. In fact there was a greater representation there last night than at any meeting held so far this year. Not a single voice was raised in protest of the carnival. Everyone wanted it and was willing to go on record as being willing to support it. With such a spirit behind the movement the success of the carnival is assured.

Roseburg gets more real advertising over the state through the Strawberry Carnival than in any other way. It is as distinctive and well known as the Horse Festival of Portland. It puts the strawberry from the Umpqua Valley on the market.
And what delicious strawberries they are. There is nothing in this wide, wide world to compare with the luscious strawberries and cream. And then there is short-cake. No delicacy prepared by the finest chef for the greatest king can in any way compare with the delight there is in a properly made strawberry short-cake. It melts in your mouth and softens the palate. And as one eats it he basks himself in fond recollection.
He thinks of the days when he was a boy, barefooted and care free, and of the old swimming hole, and the cow pasture where he went every morning and night. If he were a real boy he may even remember the strawberry patch along side the road which temptingly invited him. But being a real boy he did not disturb it—in the day time. He waited till the sky was overhung with black clouds and when every shadow took on the form of the owner of the patch carrying a double-barrelled shot gun loaded with a good-sized charge of rock salt. It was at such an hour as this that this real boy would get down on all fours and creep under the fence and fill his hat with these precious strawberries. And how they tasted. More precious than all the gold in the world, more desired than a Jack-knife, more pleasing than a buggy ride.

Such are the treats that strawberries bring. We hope that they will come before the carnival, for we want to think back on those glorious boyhood days—and we always do when we eat strawberries.

The birds of spring are bursting forth.
The lambs are in a frolic.
The ROOSTERS all are smiling.
And the knockers have the colle.
The above choice bit of poetry is used in the window displays of a local drug store. Surely spring works many wonders. In this case it has performed the miracle of transforming a registered pharmacist into a real poet minus the long hair and the hungry look.

Judge J. W. Hamilton left for Corvallis this morning where he will make a formal order setting the cases of George and Charles Humphrys, charged with murder, for April 22. The Humphrys will be tried jointly before Judge Hamilton, of Roseburg. It is expected that the trial will consume at least four weeks.

Hon. Geo. H. Himes, of Portland, assistant secretary and curator of the State Historical Society, delivered a very interesting address before a large and appreciative audience at the Presbyterian church last evening.
Mr. Himes is an able talker, and his remarks were received with deep appreciation. Mr. Himes left for portsmouth this morning where he will deliver addresses in the larger and more important towns.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of secretary of state of the state of Oregon, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election to be held on April 13th, 1912.

In hereby announce myself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for county school superintendent, at the primary election to be held April 19, 1912. Please write my name on your ballot.
Yours truly,
THURMAN CHANEY.

GO-CARTS.

Many improvements are noted in the Perambulators and Go-Carts this spring. They are big and roomy, with soft upholstery, the collapsible wheels have good springs, a necessity to baby's comfort which has heretofore been lacking, and ample provisions for stormy weather have been made in the wind and rain shields which can be adjusted to form a perfect protection.
The styles are unusually handsome, and the prices very moderate.

Whitneys' Patent Rodent Torch

This remedy was thoroughly tested for moles and other pests on the Lewis and Clark Fair Grounds and for gophers on the O. A. C. campus at Corvallis, Oregon.
The torch burns with such force that it drives the gas through every ramification of the burrow, and no animal, worm, bug or germ can live confined in the fumes of the gas.
The gas formed by burning the torch is known as Sulphurous Anhydride and is not injurious to persons or animal life when burned in the open air.
I will be in Roseburg for a few days and will demonstrate and sell at reduced prices to introduce this product.

Thermatic Way The Best
A Fireless Cooker That's Made Good There have been fireless cookers—lots of them. Some of them would do near-cooking, but they didn't roast, didn't bake, didn't cook thoroughly. Thermatic will.
The inside of the Thermatic is all metal, bright, polished. The cabinet is steel. Nothing to absorb steam, grease, or odors, and is fire-proof.
That is one point. Here is another: The covers are hinged and individual for each compartment.
The special stop hinge will not break or pull off, and our SIMPLEX fastener is the acme of thorough construction, and most easily snapped into place, drawing down tightly the covers.
Its resiliency permits steam to escape into the open air when necessary. The arrangement is so good, others are now attempting to imitate and use the same device.
Then, again, most fireless cookers cannot raise the temperature above the boiling point—212 degrees Fahrenheit. This is well enough for some stews and vegetables and cereals, but it cannot possibly roast or bake. The Thermatic does all this, and more.
When the roast or pudding is placed in the Thermatic a hot radiator is placed below it and a second one is placed above. This arranged for by our patent folding steel baking rack, supporting the upper radiator. This raises the temperature to about 350 degrees Fahrenheit and insures thorough and perfect cooking; richly browned roasts.
This is why we can bake beans, cakes, and puddings, which is absolutely out of the question with the ordinary fireless cooker, and only imperfectly performed by those cookers which have makeshift baking attachments.
And yet nothing can possibly burn.
The Thermatic cooking vessels are of aluminum, fitted with a tight aluminum cover.
Food—no matter what kind—comes out of the Thermatic more appetizing in appearance and more delicious in flavor than if you fretted and worried over a hot stove for hours.
The steel cabinet, the Dimaco metal lining, the perfect insulation, and the tightly clamped cover—these and the radiators for roasting and baking—are the secrets of the Thermatic's perfection, and IT DOES THE WORK.
The economy of fuel means much to you, too. You can easily CUT YOUR COAL OR GAS BILLS IN HALF by using the Thermatic. And the Thermatic will relieve you of an immense amount of work.
Don't work in a hot kitchen over a hot stove! Don't spend all your time cooking! Buy a Thermatic. Let it do the work for you. Remember, it will pay for itself many times over every year in the saving of fuel, time, trouble, and worry. Order one today.

Notice to "American Weekly" Subscribers
Our first order for two hundred and eighty dozen White Leghorn Chicks was forwarded to the hatchery a month ago, but the demand on Mr. Bihn is so much greater than the supply that he could not schedule the shipment until the later part of this (April) month.
The Bihn Hatchery turns out 165,000 chicks every three weeks, but it is necessary to book orders far in advance.
All subscribers will be notified by postal shortly before their chicks are shipped.
Patrons wishing one dozen or more White Leghorn Chicks can get them by subscribing to "The American Weekly" for three years or on the basis of one dozen for every three dollars, express prepaid to their destination.
