

GLENDALE NEWS.
City Election Passes Off Quietly—Other Interesting Items.

The city election passed off quietly and resulted in a victory for the people's ticket. That our municipal affairs are in competent hands there is no doubt, as all of our officers are men good and true.

The new concrete building of B. S. Rodcliffe is completed. Contractor Hardy finished his work and with his wife returned to their home at Medford.

Sheriff Quine spent Monday in this city visiting old friends and making new ones. All seem to appreciate the fact that he is a diligent and capable officer who will succeed himself as sheriff.

Hon. J. A. Buchanan was a Glendale caller Wednesday.

James Thomas, of Anchor, who has done so much toward improving the roads on upper Cow Creek, passed through Glendale enroute to the county seat this week.

John Belcher, wife and son, of Anchor, have rented their fine farm near Anchor to Thomas Brothers, and returned to their former home in Washington.

Born—At Fairview Farm, March 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Claire, a son.

Born—At Reuben, March 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. Orrah Train, a daughter.

Born—At Lyatul, March 31st, to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCulloch, a 12-pound daughter.

G. F. Martin, a native of Douglas county, lately of Monterey, Cal., is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Roberts-Miller and Mrs. Kate Slocum, in this city after an absence of 28 years.

H. D. Martin, of Grants Pass, spent Sunday in this city visiting his brother and sisters. The four surviving children of the late Col. Wm. Martin, all are Douglas county pioneers.

South Douglas, "the Italy of Oregon," is budding and blossoming with spring-time beauty, balmy sunshiny days with warm breezes evidence our fine climate, and general prosperity, along all lines of trade are apparent to all.

The sad news was received in this city on Monday of the death of George Sherman, son of Luther Littlefair at Junction City, that morning. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman left our city less than a month ago, hoping the change might be beneficial to him. They own a home and other property in this city, and are among our most estimable citizens. The bereaved wife and children have the sympathy of our entire community in their great bereavement.

Mrs. Worley, postmistress at Fervale, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm on Monday. Our local physician was called and reduced the fracture, and she is getting along nicely.

Aspirants for nomination to office are in evidence in this city. We are pleased to note the popularity of Geo. Neuner, Jr. for state senator. Mr. Neuner began active life as a laborer on his father's farm in Cow Creek Valley, where he made good. He was a diligent student at school. He represented an appreciative constituency in the lower house of our legislature and we are ready to bid him go up higher, because we can trust him. We have a good sheriff who has passed the test and is approved, and generally our county has prospered. May a great wave of prosperity be our portion during coming year.

Grant Levens, of Booth, spent one day last in Glendale on official business. He is one of our popular officials and good citizens.

Charles Stuerhoff, superintendent of the Union Leader mines, was in the city one day last week. He reports much activity at the mines, where they are just installing some new machinery.

Mrs. F. N. Wilson, of this city is visiting at the home of her son, S. A. Wilson, at Medford.

Mrs. Mollie Maynor is expecting a visit from her relative, Jake Nichols, of Riddle, who is returning via San Francisco from a trip to Honolulu.

KNOCK-PROOF & SHOCK-PROOF.

The trunks we sell were made to give constant satisfaction and with the full knowledge that baggage men and trainmen are husky. The best trunks we have are trade marked "G. & S. Neverbreak Trunks."

You will find this trade mark on the top near the lock. Every trunk bears a registration number and on the inside of the lid a post card which you fill in with your name and address, detach and mail to the makers, who will permanently register the trunk against loss free. This is only one of the many strong features of "G. & S. NEVERBREAK TRUNKS." Call and let us explain the others. Utmost value at the price you wish to pay.
