CLARK AND CLARK

Confess that they have a monopoly in that they have the only photographic studio in Roseburg with a skylight which is absolutely necessary to a studio that does only first class work. They are fully equipped to do only the best grade of photography. In these things they confess to having a monopoly. Elegant photo cards and a large folder fifty cents per dozen for a short time only.

The First "Market Day" at Washington Market, New York

AMONG the results of Mayor Shanley's vigorous campaign against the Indianapolis middlemen may be reckoned the agitation in New York city for the establishment of more public markets. The Housewives' league, of which Mrs. Julian Heath is president, recently arranged a special market day on which its members visited Washington market, in the lower part of Manhattan Island. They were received with great cordiality by the stallkeepers, who devoted a considerable part of the day to demonstrating the advantages of marketing in person instead of by telephone. Mayor Gaynor also came and was welcomed by the enthusiastic women visitors. Most of them carried capacious market baskets, which, however, they were generally too busy to fill, but they looked well in the many photographs which were made by the zealous "camera squad" of the New York newspapers. The figure at the right of the picture is Mrs. Heath, who was much pleased with the success of her experiment.

Laugh--Don't Groan.

"A Laugh is worth a hundred groans," was written long ago, And what makes laugh and causes groans is something you shall know.

You ne'er can laugh but groan you will, if your stomach is out of tune.

So listen to us and we'll tell you now a stomach's greatest boon.

TIS QUALITY FOOD well cooked and served THE BEST THAT CAN BE BOUGHT.

And if you haven't learned where that is found 'tis time you surely ought.

NO INDIGESTION CAN EXIST WHERE OUR GROCERIES are in use,

But if you buy improper foods, your stomach will raise the deuce.

"AMERICA'S FINEST FLOURING MILLS"

WHY? Blend Flour

STRAIGHT Eastern Hard Wheat flour has its uses. So has straight Soft Wheat flour. But to get results from the hard wheat flour, it must be thoroughly kneaded. The housewife finds this too laborious. Furthermore, we're living in a labor-saving age. Yet, Eastern Hard Wheat flour has desirable qualities that cannot be overlooked in the production of the best breadstuffs. Bakers realize this, for invariably they combine flours themselves, made of Eastern Hard Wheat and Western Soft Wheat—that is to say, BLEND THEM. But the two must not be mixed haphazardly, as the superiority of combination depends wholly on a proper balance. Before offering the public their product, the FISHER'S BLENDING MILLS COMPANY made exhaustive tests to determine the exact proportions of each flour required to produce the blend of highest efficiency.

The formula finally adopted, in actual baking competition with all other well-known brands on the market today, has completely demonstrated its excellence. You get this sensible combination in buying
