MISS HIMES WINNER.
Is Elected "Queen of the Carnival" By a Handsome Majority.

The contest for "Queen of the Carnival" and "Children's Queen" closed at eight o'clock Saturday evening with Miss Betty Himes, the popular Western Union messenger, leading for the former honors by over 200 votes. Miss Himes polled a total of 1,460 votes, while her nearest competitor, Miss Virginia DeLillis, a waitress at the Grand cafe, received 1,052 votes. Miss Vada Watts, a local telephone operator, polled $61 votes, followed by Miss Margaret Musgrove, who received 637 votes.

In the contest for "Children's Queen", Miss Maybelle Miller won by several hundred votes. She secured a total of 1,354 votes, seconded by Thelma Alley who received about 875 votes. While the enthusiasm manifest in the contest did not compare with former years, the carnival committee is satisfied with the results. F. E. Alley, who recently returned from Portland made arrangements for the robes to be worn by the "Queens" and their attendants, and the same will probably arrive here tonight.

Both Miss Himes and Miss Miller are well known in Roseburg, where they have many friends who extend congratulations.
