THE LIBERTY BELL.

Favors For Fourth of July Feasts.

PATRIOTIC FAVOR BOXES.

A charming and unusual luncheon plan is a Liberty bell table. The idea beginning with the flowers and extending to favors and all minor details.

The centerpiece, by way of a change, might be a hanging one, a bell formed of flowers and depending from the chandelier or by ribbons from the ceiling.

Again, you could have the conventional low bed of flowers and just above this one of the silver Liberty bells in paper mache which come for holding candy. Have this swing from the chandelier or from the ceiling by ribbons and fill it with favors to be distributed after the luncheon, or you can fill it with sweets and have as favors little chocolate or silver paper Liberty bells, with the names of the guests written upon them in blue or red ink, as you choose.

Replicas of the old Liberty bell canasily be made provided one can construct the frame of wire by covering the frame with paper which has been dampened, then molded into shape.
The outside is afterward tinted in a dull bronze, with the date 1776 across the surface in gold lettering. However, these trifles are so inexpensive that it would be a waste of time for any one to try to make them at home.

There are any number of variations of the articles typical of Independence day shown in favors which will not only add interest but attractiveness to the Fourth of July entertainment.

Useful Traveling Suit.

Scarlet or green silk is introduced in smart touches on the black and white tailored costume, as evidenced in this

PEPPER AND SALT COSUME.

good looking suit of black and white check, which has a collar and cuffs of black satin faced with apple green.

The Key.

"And where, my fellow citizens," appealed the political speaker, "can we find an instrument so fit, so delicate, so adjustable and at the same time so unassuming and popular that it will unlock every department of mind for the benefit of the people?"
"The harp!" shrieked an enthusiastic suffragist in the audience.
