

OUR EDENBOWER LETTER.

Fearful Score—Lane Morley Here—
Edgar Madison From Kellogg
—Fine Hay Harvested—
Edenbower Busy.

The game pulled off Sunday between the Riverside and Winchester clubs on the diamond of the former, resulted in a score of 21 to 10 in favor of Winchester. The boys of both clubs had better take a couple of weeks off and practice long enough to play ball at least half way.

Lane Morley, who is teaching school at Port Orford, Coos county, has been visiting in Edenbower enjoying a week's vacation and resting up. He is highly pleased with his school, which is progressing satisfactorily, and will leave on his return this morning.

Edgar Madison, of Kellogg, visited Edenbower Sunday evening, on matters of business, and great friends and relatives. He reported matters of business, and greeted logs.

John Botcher has put a new counter in his store which reaches its entire length. He has in contemplation the making of quite a number of other improvements at an early date.

There has been considerable fine hay put up in Edenbower during the past week. Though the rain injured the hay to quite an extent in June, there will be plenty of it put up during the present month, and there will be none lacking the coming winter. An inspection of the oat and wheat fields during the past few days insures a heavy yield of grain. With a cool sea breeze that gives us tip-top weather during harvest everybody is pleased with the agreeable prospect that there is before them. All gardeners and orchardists are pretty busy at the present writing, and when the gathering of peaches, pears, prunes and apples is added to present labors, Edenbower will not have an idle man within its bounds.

daries. We have the best country on the Pacific coast, and we appreciate the fact. Even the chronic knocker does not abide long with us, for the good reason he soon finds he is the only one who has nothing to do.

J. W. Sen, an old civil war veteran, accompanied by his wife and a nephew has gone to Bay City to pass the summer down by the sounding sea. It was his intention to stop at Yaquina bay, but changed his mind.

Del Pearce has sold his place in Edenbower, embracing land, crops, cows, horses, fruit, etc., to a party from Pennsylvania, named Peter Jorey, who has taken possession. The land embraces ten acres, and is very desirable. Mr. Pearce will visit several points on a tour of pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Lofgren, of Salem, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, of Edenbower.

Mrs. G. while engaged in the performance of her household duties near her home in Hungry Hollow Tuesday, came upon two rattlesnakes which coiled up and gave warning as those reptiles invariably do. Did she scream for help and run for the house? Though petite in size, she was not of the kind that is easily frightened. The first thing she thought of was a club, and when she found one, she found the snakes, and in less time than it takes to write the occurrence both of the serpents' heads were mashed out of recognition and their rattles were detached from their former owners' bodies and placed beneath her hat-band as future testimonial of the brave woman's unparalleled victory. Very few men would have attacked the snakes as she did, and none would have treated the affair as she did when relating the killing of the snakes.

There is much doing at the Edenbower Land Company's large tract of improved land north of town just now. Additional work horses have been purchased during the present week, and also have the number of men been increased cutting hay, grain and attending to growing young orchards which are being carefully attended to for outside owners. Secretary Fisher states that he has his hands full of business just now and for some months yet.

Mason Aldrich has workmen adding a dormer window and other improvements to his new residence.

Attorney J. M. Kelly and wife left Friday morning for Joplin, Mo. They went simply on a visit to old-time friends, and will return to Edenbower in the fall.

T. M. Hammond Wednesday inadvertently stepped one foot into an empty post hole, and was violently thrown to the ground, wrenching his leg and painfully spraining the right hip. He can barely get about he is suffering so much.

Morris Webber, who left two years ago for St. Petersburg, Russia, arrived in New York Monday, and is expected to reach his home in Edenbower today (Saturday).

J. W. Schmidt has put a white cucumber upon the Roseburg market for which he is meeting an active demand at 25 cent each, and was selling till Thursday at 10 per pound, while those from California were bringing only 8 cents. The Edenbower vegetables are fresh is why they are bringing better prices.

Dr. Smick, of Roseburg, was called in attendance upon Mrs. W. E. Nitter Friday morning.

Prior to his departure for Port Orford this (Saturday) morning, Lane

FIFTEEN GREAT DEPARTMENTS OF KNOWLEDGE

The Fifteen Great Departments supply the needs and exercise all the faculties of the growing mind. Natural Science, which lights up nature; delightful history, mechanics and arts; beautiful places to be seen or dreamed about, adventure, which arrives and brings back a treasure; real people more interesting than giants and cleverer than fairies; things to make and do which delightfully occupy busy hands—all satisfy and stimulate eager young minds. The reason for including every department will be easily apparent after examining the work.

President John H. Finley, of the College of the City of New York, introduction says: "Suppose a boy of ten were to spend fifteen minutes a day reading these pages, he would at 13 know more about the earth and the life on it than the wisest men know a few generations ago."

A WELL-ROUNDED EDUCATION

A well-rounded education cannot be obtained in the school room alone. The boy or girl whose progress in the most rapid will almost always be the one whose reading has been carefully selected at home. The editors of the BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE have rendered this great service to childhood. No wise parent will neglect the opportunity offered by this work to study the disposition and capabilities of his child. In many cases a child's life work may be determined by the possession of these books.

THE THREEFOLD INFORMATION

The important facts in all the leading articles are indelibly impressed upon the mind in three different ways. First the summary at the head of each article, then the wonderfully interesting article itself, then the pictures illustrating it, with the several lines of terse and vivid description.

THE LITERARY DIGEST SAYS OF THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE:

"It is an exhaustive work and a notable example of editorial skill in the choice of topics and their treatment. Adults as well as children will be fascinated alike by the luminous text and the illustrations. As has already been pointed out in these columns, one of the uses of such a work would be to assist parents, their sons and daughters in finding out whether a child's natural bent be toward science, mechanics, trade or literature."

LET THE CHILDREN DECIDE

They will be delighted with the beautiful illustrated booklet mailed free giving the contents of each of the Departments of Knowledge. The valuable pamphlet, "The Mind of a Child," also presented.

THE WISDOM OF THE WORLD IN SIMPLE LANGUAGE

The lost art of simplicity—the art of presenting profound truths in the simple language which a child can understand—has been discovered by the editors of the BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE. The simple clear and convincing style which appeals equally to the adult mind is the secret of the great drawing power of this remarkable work. It quickens and stimulates thought and in a marked degree wakens interest in the world of ideas. Not only facts but ideals are absorbed, and learning made a real delight
