

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

Interesting Bits of Information Gathered for the Busy Reader.

The Cigar Makers' blue label was the first trade label ever used by any labor organization.

Next year the Scottish trade union congress will be held at Dumfries, and a large attendance is expected.

The Brotherhood of Railway Car-men recently issued a charter for a local union at Sarnia, Ontario.

The boatcarriers and building laborers of Woodstock, Canada, organized recently and obtained a 2½ cent an hour increase.

The National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery will hold its annual convention at Atlantic City, N. J., during this month.

The State Federation of Labor of Louisiana will shortly be reorganized and will affiliate with the American Federation of Labor.

The Canadian government by law proposes to restrict the working hours of the street railway men to six days of ten hours each.

What is known as the uniform child labor law has been passed by both houses of the Arizona state legislature and been signed by the governor.

The International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Helpers has recently begun the organizing of ladies' auxiliaries, and is meeting with splendid success.

The city council of Regina, Saskatchewan, has passed a fair wage clause, which compels contractors to pay the rates agreed on by the builders' exchange and the unions.

The men employed by the Electric Railway Company at Regina, Saskatchewan, have organized a local union. The street car system in that city is owned by the municipality.

In London, England, during the month of March the total number of workmen engaged in all disputes was 1,400,542 and the aggregate duration in lost working days was 24,579,500, as compared with 463,500 in the previous month.

The referendum vote recently taken by the membership of the Cigar Makers' International union on the holding of a convention, resulted favorably. The convention will be held in Baltimore, Md., beginning the third Tuesday in September.

The men who belong to the Western Federation of Miners and who are employed in Oatman, Ariz., have entered a protest against the non-union goods sold by the mine-owners at high prices and have decided to start a co-operative general store.

Two important decisions affecting labor were handed down recently by the Illinois supreme court. One decision upholds the constitutionality of the ten-hour law amendments limiting the hours of labor of women in hotels, restaurants and practically all places where they are employed. The other decision upholds the right of men to strike rather than work with non-union employees.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, July 10, 1912.

NOTICE is hereby given that Virinda Vinson, whose postoffice address is Cleveland, Oregon, did, on the 6th day of November, 1909, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 05628, to purchase the N. ½ N. W. ¼, S. E. ¼ N. W. ¼ and N. W. ¼ S. E. ¼, Section 26, Township 26 S., range 3 West, Willamette Meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the Timber and Stone Law, as such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised $864.00, the timber estimated 2,000,000 board feet at 40 to 70 cents per M, and the land nothing; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 27 day of September, 1912, before Register and Receiver United States Land Office, at Roseburg, Oregon.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
