MURDER OF ROSENTHAL RESULTS IN RIGID INVESTIGATION

District Attorney Whitman Interrogates Many Witnesses During Past Few Days—Scores Police Officers.

POLICE MAY BE IMPLICATED

(Special to The Evening News.)
NEW YORK, July 20.—The murder plot that brought Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, to his death, is today being brought closer to the "police system".

William Shapiro, part owner of the "murder" car is giving the public prosecutor information that strengthens the belief that the slaying of Rosenthal did not spring from the enmity of gamblers.

Shapiro admits that when his motor car was engaged, he was told policemen had knowledge of what was going to happen and that nobody was in any danger.

"Bald Jack" Rose, gambler, and friend of Police Lieutenant Racker, and who surrendered himself to the police, has given the name of a gambler and a gun-fighter who was in the car the night that Rosenthal was shot down in front of the Hotel Metropole. His name is Schapps, and detectives are scouring the city for him.

What Rose told Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty makes the police official feel quite anxious to know more about "Bridgie" Webber, pool room keeper and friend of Rosenthal. Rose said when he left the car up town he dropped in on Webber, but later it appears that Webber turned up at the Hotel Metropole just before Rosenthal was shot and there shook hands with the gambler. Webber also was at the hotel after the shooting.

Shapiro is willing to tell more of the circumstances that led to the shooting of Rosenthal, but he won't tell them to the police, Shapiro, through his counsel, admits he is in a bad situation and hopes that he will be dealt with leniently if he tells all he knows of the murder. He is willing to take his chances with the district attorney, but he won't talk to the police.

For the first time the name of "Big Jack" Seelig, the East Side gang leader and gambler, who recently was shot by a "Chick" Triggs gangster, was brought into the case today. Detectives heard that Seelig, who is known as the right hand of Sam Paul, another East Side gang leader, was seen talking to Rose the night of the murder. According to the story, Rose was trying to get Seelig to do something for him, and Seelig was promised as a reward immunity from the charge of carrying a concealed weapon now pending against him. Seelig's lawyer says he is not in town and has not been since July 10.

Developments are expected from a three hours' conference District Attorney Whitman had early today at his home with a mysterious man said to be a well known gambler and friend of Rosenthal. Whitman said after the meeting:

"I shall have nothing to say now concerning the man who called on me. Perhaps later I'll be in a position to give the details of what I have learned.

Whitman, however, intimated he had discovered important evidence, and he will issue subpoenas on the strength of the man's statements.

District Attorney Whitman again scored the police for failure to get any further than they have in rounding up the murderers.

"The police are criticizing my department," said Whitman, in great indignation, "yet in the four days elapsing since this murder the only evidence they have collected is that the murderers escaped and that a gray touring car was used."

Private citizens have promised funds for an investigation by private detectives to clear up the mystery. With the advent of private detectives, five distinct investigations will be under way. The police and District Attorney are conducting inquiries along separate lines, the grand jury is working on still another line, the mayor is having a quiet investigation in his own way and the private detectives make the fifth.
